

Music Program

Brother Joe May, known as the Thunderbolt of the Midwest, and his daughter will appear in a musical program at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday in St. Peter's AME Church. The program, sponsored by a Decatur evangelist-singer, Mrs. Anna Mae Landis, is open to the public. Tickets are $1 in advance sale and $1.25 at the door.

Laymen's Day At Trinity

The Trinity CME Church will have Laymen's Day tomorrow with Marion Guyton, president of Laymen of St. Louis, Mo., as guest speaker.

The public is invited to attend the 3:30 p. m. program in which the St. Louis man will speak. Laymen from Decatur and other cities will participate in the program.

Speakers include:

Robert G. Slaw, Trinity's lay president

Mrs. Winifred Thomas, lay secretary of St. Peter's AME Church

Lavender Robinson, president of the Antioch Baptist Brotherhood.

Mrs. Lilliam Winfrey and Miss Theresa Winfrey, both of Trinity Church, will sing a duet. The Rev. H. Bledsoe, pastor at Trinity, will also speak.

QUARTET HONORED

Two programs conducted by the Midwest Quartet of Peoria will honor the first anniversary of the Evening Star Quartet of Decatur at the Northside Baptist Church at 3 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday..