Sanctuary candle

For the poor souls in purgatory

By Lady Flora Nzeribe

Pope Francis' special intentions for the month of OCTOBER:

A Church Open To Everyone

We pray for the Church; ever faithful to, and courageous in preaching the Gospel, may the Church be a community of solidarity, fraternity and welcome, always living in an atmosphere of synodality.

ALLELUIA!

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son,
so that everyone who believes in him might have eternal life.

READINGS FOR THE 31st. SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading – Wisdom 11:22-12:2: “But you spare all things, because they are yours, O LORD and lover of souls, for your imperishable spirit is in all things!”

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 145: “I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.”

Second Reading – 2 Thessalonians 1:11-2:2: “We always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling and powerfully bring to fulfillment every good purpose and every effort of faith.”

Gospel – Luke 19:1-10: “Today salvation has come to this house because this man too is a descendant of Abraham. For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost.”

Jesus knows that transformation starts with love. Once the outsider understands he is loved, then he can let go of the sins he is clinging to. This frees him to follow Jesus. Like Jesus, we should not be afraid to encounter sinners and tell them the Good News that they are loved. This offers them a freedom from the bonds of condemnation.

Tax collectors were despised for collaborating with the Roman occupiers. Many were dishonest and took more than they were due to make a larger profit. By the example of Zacchaeus, Jesus takes a person who was hated by society – a tax collector – and shows how nobody is beyond transformation and salvation.

Most of the Jews of the time wanted nothing to do with this group of people. They were pushed outside of polite society, and so their money and material goods became their only comfort. But Jesus has a different view. He sees a group who needs to be invited back into the fold. He was willing to speak with tax collectors and even dine with them in their homes.

YOU SPARE ALL THINGS, BECAUSE THEY ARE YOURS, O
LORD AND LOVER OF SOULS

Wisdom 11:26

All Saints' Day is a solemn holy day of the Catholic Church celebrated annually on November 1. The day is dedicated to the saints of the Church, that is, all those who have attained heaven. It should not be confused with All Souls' Day, which is observed on November 2, and is dedicated to those who have died and not yet reached heaven. Although millions, or even billions of people may already be saints, All Saints' Day observances tend to focus on known saints –that is those recognized in the canon of the saints by the Catholic Church.

Prayer for all Souls Day

*Merciful Father, hear our prayer and console us.
As we renew
our faith in Your Son, whom You raised from the dead, strengthen our hope that all our departed brothers and sisters will share in His resurrection, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.*

Solemnidad de Todos los Santos ¿Qué se celebra este Día de Todos los Santos? Celebra a todos aquellos difuntos que, habiendo superado el purgatorio, fueron totalmente santificados, es decir, que obtuvieron la visión beatífica y que gozan de la vida eterna en la presencia de Dios. En este día no sólo se festeja a aquellos que ya obtuvieron la canonización, sino a los que todavía no han sido canonizados, pero que ya viven en la presencia de Dios.

El Día de Muertos permite recordar a todos los fieles difuntos que estén o no en el paraíso.
