

Management Reporting

HCH was selected by an international health insurer to develop management reports. The company was growing rapidly and did not have the reports and metrics needed to effectively manage the business. HCH prepared numerous reports and financial analyses to identify business drivers and trends. HCH also reviewed claims handling and reporting and calculated year end loss reserves.