

Annual Meeting of the Person Memory Interest Group

October 13-15, 2009

At the Spruce Point Inn
Boothbay Harbor, Maine

Co-organized by David L. Hamilton and Eliot R. Smith

Wednesday, October 14

Session One

Chair: Jeff Sherman, University of California, Davis

- 8:30 John Skowronski, Northern Illinois University
More Evidence for Process Differences Underlying STI and STT: The Effects of Repetition
- 9:15 Kate Ranganath, Tilburg University
Guilt by Association: Processes of Implicit and Explicit Attitude Generalization
- 10:00 Break
- 10:30 Kristina Olson, Yale University
The Justice Paradox: Children Value Equality and Advantage
- 11:15 Emily Balcetis, New York University
How a Biased Majority Claim a Moral Minority
- 12:30 Lunch

Wednesday, October 14
Session Two
Chair: Fritz Strack, University of Würzburg

2:00 Kerry Kawakami, York University
Mispredicting Affective and Behavioral Responses to Racism

2:45 Stephanie Goodwin, Purdue University
Urgency to Confront: When Does Prejudice Warrant a Response?

3:30 Break

4:00 2009 Thomas M. Ostrom Award Address

Co-Chairs:

Fritz Strack                      Russ Fazio
University of Würzburg      The Ohio State University

Don Carlston, Purdue University
Linking Versus Thinking:
Why Associations Matter in Social Cognition

7:00 Dinner

Thursday, October 15
Session Three
Chair: Myron Rothbart, University of Oregon

8:30 David Amodio, New York University
Proactive Control: How Goals Tune Perception to Regulated Action

9:15 Regina Krieglmeier, University of California, Davis
Being Moved by Valence: Underlying Mechanisms of Approach-Avoidance Motivation

10:00 Break

10:30 Dana Carney, Columbia University
Lie to Me: Power Enhances the Ability to Lie Successfully

11:15 Duane Wegener, Purdue University
Elaboration and Numerical Anchoring

12:30 Lunch

