

Rainbow Ridge Farm Inc.
WAIVER OF LIABILITY at 4841 Applebutter Rd. Pipersville, PA 18947

The Undersigned assumes the risks associated with equine-related and farm animal related activities, including but not limited to bodily injury and physical harm to horse, rider, spectator, and to property of themselves and others. The Undersigned agrees that notice of limits liability for equine activity sponsors, is hereby given and is posted at the premises indicated.

In consideration therefore, for the privilege of riding and/or working around horses and farm animals and exotic animals at the PREMISES or under the direction of Rainbow Ridge Farm staff or Volunteers, in regards to an equestrian riding program and an animal education program involving farm animals and exotic animals, and any of their agents, employees, or assigns, (which is designated hereinafter as "the Farm" individually and collectively) the Undersigned does hereby agree to waive liability and claims for, and to hold harmless and indemnify the FARM, their agents, and assignees;

and hereby releases them from ANY AND ALL claims, liability or responsibility for accident, damage, injury, or illness to the Undersigned, or to any horse owned by the Undersigned, or to any invitee, guest, family member or spectator on the premises or on any premises while the undersigned is under the direction of the Farm. This waiver expressly includes actions or omissions which could be construed as ordinary negligence or a want of due care. Such claims may not be brought in future, even if injury occurs, because the undersigned has waived these claims in this agreement. _____ Initial

The "Inherent Risks of Equine Activities," dangers, or conditions which are an integral part of equine activities, are defined as indicated in the above referenced statute and are including but not limited to:

The propensity of equines to behave in ways that may result in injury, harm, or death to person on or around them; the unpredictability of an equine's reactions to such things as sounds, sudden movement, and unfamiliar objects, persons, or other animals; certain hazards such as surface and subsurface conditions; collisions with other equines or objects; the potential of a participant to act in a negligent manner which may contribute to injury to the participants or objects, such as failing to maintain control over the animal or not acting within his ability. Under Pennsylvania Law, an equine professional is not liable for an injury to, or the death of a participant in equine activities resulting from the inherent risk of equine activities, pursuant to the General Laws of Pennsylvania.

These risks include bodily injury up to and including death, from using, riding or being in close proximity to horses, among other risks, and further, that both horse and rider can be injured in normal use or in competition and schooling or by the ordinary negligence including other participants.
