Present: Joan Gaudreau Debbie Ledoux Carole Libbey Don Smith

Absent:

City Rep: Shrija Vora City Councilor: Fred Ngoundjo

Unofficial Meeting of Heritage Cornwall awaiting confirmation from the City on members.

- 1) Call to order: 6:35
- 2) Correspondence or emails
The latest CHO Newsletter is now available; it can be accessed on their website
The 2022 grant from the City was received in Nov.
- 3) Treasurer's Report- Carole Libbey
Closing balance as at Jan. 4th is $20,109.
Though she did not reapply for the Committee, Ginette Guy has agreed to continue as Webmaster
- 4) Business Arising
 - a) Heritage Awards Update: still outstanding
 - b) Historic Square Mile update:
The sign has been finalized. According to notes written by Karl Doyle in Oct. 2019, design to be sent to the City's Traffic Department for fabrication and installation.
- 5) New Business
 - a) Heritage Fair-D.Ledoux
Cornwall Square has been booked for Feb. 25th for setup on the first floor. Emails have sent to all former participants.
 - b) Request for a Demolition Permit
The Committee is asked to comment on a demolition permit received for properties located at 241, 245 and 249 Pitt Street (north of George Assaly lane). The three properties are Non-designated Heritage Sites.
The Committee has learned that the area is to be used for a building of 7 – 8 stories. The Committee strongly feels that this high a structure would be an eyesore in the core of the City and hope that it be limited to no more than 3 stories.
 - c) Zoom Meetings: Because the Committee has limited access to Zoom Meetings and must pay for extensions, S. Vora will inquire if the City has a contract which could be used.
- 6) Adjournment: 7:45 pm
- 7) Next Meeting – Feb. 2, 2023 Format TBD D. Smith will act as secretary

Addendum: from Ginette Guy Mayer -still doing the social media and website. I will do the marketing for the Heritage Fair and keep posting the minutes.
