From the Pastor's Desk

Dear brothers and sisters,

In this last days, we have been listening a lot the word unity, that we need to unify in front of a divided nation. Also, that we need to unify to combat COVID-19. I wanted to reflect a little bit on the word unity. The word unity comes from the Latin unus that means one; the definition then comes to be "to be one". To be one is not the same as to be the same. Oneness allows for complementarity. For example, a couple that receives the sacrament of marriage is one, they have unity but that does not mean that they are the same. They complement each other and help each other in sanctity but at the same time they are different, not only biologically but in thoughts and characters. Unity means that we can be different and be one. I say this because we see in the Gospel Jesus calling the first disciples. This group will have unity, but they are completely different. This is the beauty of the Church, we are different, but we complement each other. We are united in the tenets of our Faith and we complement each other's gifts.

Last weekend we also started our Annual Appeal. We are invited to be disciples like the apostles and to do so they need to risk and follow the Lord. I invite you to risk like I will do too. We need to support the mission of our Church and for this we depend on the generosity of the disciples. I hope we all participate, even the widow in the Gospel had something to contribute. Our goal is $ 19,811. Let us pray for each other and for our country.

Saint Francis de Sales Pray for Us!

Queridos hermanos y hermanas:

En estos últimos días, hemos estado escuchando mucho la palabra unidad, que necesitamos unificar frente a una nación dividida. Además, necesitamos unirnos para combatir COVID-19. Quería reflexionar un poco sobre la palabra unidad. La palabra unidad proviene del latín unus que significa uno; entonces la definición pasa a ser "ser uno". No es lo mismo ser uno que ser el mismo. La unidad permite la complementariedad. Por ejemplo, una pareja que recibe el sacramento del matrimonio es una, tienen unidad, pero eso no quiere decir que sean lo mismo. Se complementan y se ayudan mutuamente en santidad, pero al mismo tiempo son diferentes, no solo biológicamente sino en pensamiento y carácter. Unidad significa que podemos ser diferentes y ser uno. Digo esto porque vemos en el Evangelio a Jesús llamando a los primeros discípulos. Este grupo tendrá unidad, pero son completamente diferentes. Esta es la belleza de la Iglesia, somos diferentes, pero nos complementamos. Estamos unidos en los principios de nuestra fe y complementamos los dones de los demás.

El fin de semana pasado también comenzamos nuestra Campaña Anual. Estamos invitados a ser discípulos como los apóstoles y para ello necesitan arriesgar y seguir al Señor. Te invito a arriesgarte como yo también. Necesitamos apoyar la misión de nuestra Iglesia y para ello dependemos de la generosidad de los discípulos. Espero que todos participemos, incluso la viuda del Evangelio tuvo algo que aportar. Nuestra meta es $ 19,811. Oremos los unos por los otros y por nuestro país.

¡San Francisco de Sales ¡Ruega por nosotros!

Caros irmãos e irmãs

Nestes últimos dias, temos ouvido muito a palavra unidade, que precisamos unificar diante de uma nação dividida. Além disso, precisamos nos unificar para combater o COVID-19. Queria refletir um pouco sobre a palavra unidade. A palavra unidade vem do latim unus, que significa um; a definição então passa a ser, "ser um". Ser um não é o mesmo que ser o mesmo. Unidade permite complementaridade. Por exemplo, um casal que recebe o sacramento do casamento é um, eles têm unidade, mas isso não significa que sejam iguais. Eles se complementam e se ajudam na santidad, mas ao mesmo tempo são diferentes, não apenas biologicamente, mas em pensamentos e personagens. Unidade significa que podemos ser diferentes e ser um. Digo isso porque vemos no Evangelho Jesus chamando os primeiros discípulos. Este grupo terá unidade, mas são completamente diferentes. Essa é a beleza da Igreja, somos diferentes, mas nos complementamos. Estamos unidos nos princípios de nossa fé e complementamos os dons uns dos outros.

No fim de semana passado, também iniciamos nosso Apelo Anual. Somos convidados a ser discípulos como os apóstolos e para isso precisam arriscar e seguir o Senhor. Convido você a arriscar como eu também vou. Precisamos apoiar a missão da nossa Igreja e para isso dependemos da generosidade dos discípulos. Espero que todos participemos, até a viúva do Evangelho tinha algo a contribuir. Nossa meta é $ 19.811. Oremos uns pelos outros e por nosso país.

São Francisco de Sales ora por nós!

Fr. Francisco
