The Second Collection this weekend, 9th/10th July is for the Apostleship of the Sea

*A Tradition of Mercy.
A Heart of Caring.*

STELLA MARIS : This Sunday is Sea Sunday The Church prays for all those who live and work at sea. Seafarers and fishers play a vital role in all of our lives, but they often work in difficult, hazardous conditions. In the last year, more crews have been abandoned by their employers than ever before. Many are still being denied the right to leave their ships for even a short break away from the relentless noise and pressure onboard. Many are reporting more stress and poorer mental health. Your support will make a big difference to seafarers and fishers in need. You can donate in church by cash in the basket or DONA. Gift aid envelopes are available at the back of the Church. This collection is vital to enable Stella Maris to continue its important work, so please give generously. Thank you."

THE GOOD SAMARITAN - "Who is my neighbour"

Active involvement with those who are downtrodden and oppressed is a key feature of loving outreach in God's kingdom. It might mean taking initiatives to reach out to vulnerable and destitute people in our community who can never repay our favours. It might mean taking up campaigns for justice and peace which try to tackle the causes of suffering at home and overseas. Working to highlight root causes of violence and war where whole groups of people are demonised as "enemies" will almost certainly draw criticism since this goes against the prevailing culture, but it is what God expects of us. God's love and peace teach us that it is possible to go beyond the boundaries human society has constructed and to do things in a different and revolutionary way. We don't just serve those who serve us, or return favours because we have received them: we are called to love beyond the usual expectations of making special efforts only for family and friends.

Peter Edwards

Pope Francis' prayer intention for the month of July As the Church gears up to celebrate the 2nd World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly on 24th July, Pope Francis is calling on Catholics to pray throughout the month for the elderly. He reflects on their special needs and the gifts they can offer younger generations.

"Let us pray for the elderly, that they may become teachers of tenderness so that their experience and wisdom may help young people to look towards the future with hope and responsibility."
