

The

Parable

The

Sewer

and

The

Seed

And again He began to teach by the sea. And a large crowd was gathered to Him, so that He entered into the boat in order to sit in the sea. And all the crowd were on the land toward the sea. And He taught them many things in parables, and said to them in His teaching: Listen! Behold, the sower went out to sow – Mark 4:1-3

And as he sowed, it happened that one indeed fell by the side of the road; and the birds of the heaven came and devoured it – Mark 4:4

And another fell on the stony place where it did not have much earth. And it sprang up at once, due to not having deepness of earth. And the sun rising, it was scorched. And through not having root, it was dried out. And another fell into the thorn bushes, and the thorn-bushes grew up and choked it; and it did not yield fruit - Mark 4:5-7

And another fell into the good ground, and yielded fruit, going up and increasing; and one bore thirty, and one sixty, and one a hundred fold – Mark 4:8
