

THE ARIZONA COALITION

OF SCHOOL BOARD MEMBERS

ENHANCED BY Google

- Home icon
- ABOUT US
- LEADERSHIP TEAM
- REPORTS
- RESOURCES
- CAREERS
- CONTACT US

Attorney General's Office Anti-racketeering Revolving Fund—Biennial Review

Review of Office's use of anti-racketeering monies in fiscal years 2021 and 2022 did not identify improper use, but Office made error when processing procurement documents for 1 transaction and did not receive appropriate documentation for portion of 1 reimbursement to law enforcement agency.

COVID-19 Guidance and Resources

Arizona school districts' and charter schools', and ADE's discretionary, COVID-19 federal relief spending—through June 30, 2022... View Report

Arizona Auditor General Special COVID-19 Funding Report, November 2022... View Report

State and federal guidance and resources by entity and topic. View Links

School District Financial Risk Analysis

As of December 2022, 3 Arizona school districts are at higher financial risk of not being able to operate within their available cash resources and budget constraints...

View Report

School District Spending Report

In FY 2022, dollars spent on instruction and total per-student spending increased from the prior year, but the State-wide instructional spending percentage decreased by 0.8 percentage points because districts allocated a smaller proportion of the increased operational spending to instruction than in prior years. The State average teacher salary increased to $58,366 and districts used COVID-19 federal relief monies

Auditor General's Website Homepage

ENHANCED BY Google

- Home icon
- ABOUT US
- LEADERSHIP TEAM
- REPORTS
- RESOURCES
- CAREERS
- CONTACT US

Attorney General's Office Anti-racketeering Revolving Fund—Biennial Review

Review of Office's use of anti-racketeering monies in fiscal years 2021 and 2022 did not identify improper use, but Office made error when processing procurement documents for 1 transaction and did not receive appropriate documentation for portion of 1 reimbursement to law enforcement agency.

COVID-19 Guidance and Resources

Arizona school districts' and charter schools', and ADE's discretionary, COVID-19 federal relief spending—through June 30, 2022... View Report

Arizona Auditor General Special COVID-19 Funding Report, November 2022... View Report

State and federal guidance and resources by entity and topic... View Reports

School District Financial Risk Analysis

As of December 2022, 3 Arizona school districts are at higher financial risk of not being able to operate within their available cash resources and budget constraints... View Report

School District Spending Report

In FY 2022, dollars spent on instruction and total per-student spending increased from the prior year, but the State-wide instructional spending percentage decreased by 0.8 percentage points because districts allocated a smaller proportion of the increased operational spending to instruction than in prior years. The State average teacher salary increased to $58,366 and districts used COVID-19 federal relief monies

COVID-19 Box on Homepage

ENHANCED BY Google

- Home icon
- ABOUT US
- LEADERSHIP TEAM
- REPORTS
- RESOURCES
- CAREERS
- CONTACT US

Attorney General’s Office Anti-racketeering Revolving Fund—Biennial Review

Review of Office’s use of anti-racketeering monies in fiscal years 2021 and 2022 did not identify improper use, but Office made error when processing procurement documents for 1 transaction and did not receive appropriate documentation for portion of 1 reimbursement to law enforcement agency.

COVID-19 Guidance and Resources

Arizona school districts’ and charter schools’, and ADE’s discretionary, COVID-19 federal relief spending—through June 30, 2022... View Report

Arizona Auditor General Special COVID-19 Funding Report, November 2022... View Report

State and federal guidance and resources by entity and topic... View

School District Financial Risk Analysis

As of December 2022, 3 Arizona school districts are at higher financial risk of not being able to operate within their available cash resources and budget constraints... View Report

School District Spending Report

In FY 2022, dollars spent on instruction and total per-student spending increased from the prior year, but the State-wide instructional spending percentage decreased by 0.8 percentage points because districts allocated a smaller proportion of the increased operational spending to instruction than in prior years. The State average teacher salary increased to $58,366 and districts used COVID-19 federal relief monies

COVID-19 Box on Homepage → View Report

ENHANCED BY Google

ABOUT US

LEADERSHIP TEAM

REPORTS

RESOURCES

CAREERS

CONTACT US

Home »

Arizona school districts' and charter schools', and ADE's discretionary, COVID-19 federal relief spending—in fiscal year 2022 and in total through June 30, 2022

January 1, 2023

OVERVIEW

This special report provides summary information and 4 interactive dashboards with Arizona school districts' and charter schools' (districts and charters) reported spending in fiscal year (FY) 2022 and in total through June 30, 2022, and planned future spending of allocated/awarded COVID-19 federal relief monies (awards), as required by Laws 2021, Ch. 408, §54.

This special report also provides Arizona Department of Education (ADE)-reported spending in FY 2022 and in total through June 30, 2022, and planned future spending of the discretionary COVID-19 federal relief monies that it received, as required by the law. This information is included below the dashboards.

ADDITIONAL LINKS

- Special report
- Data file

SHARE

+ Share / Save f t ➔

COVID-19 Navigation Page

ENHANCED BY Google

- Home
- ABOUT US
- LEADERSHIP TEAM
- REPORTS
- RESOURCES
- CAREERS
- CONTACT US

Home »

Arizona school districts' and charter schools', and ADE's discretionary, COVID-19 federal relief spending—in fiscal year 2022 and in total through June 30, 2022

January 1, 2023

OVERVIEW

This special report provides summary information and 4 interactive dashboards with Arizona school districts' and charter schools' (districts and charters) reported spending in fiscal year (FY) 2022 and in total through June 30, 2022, and planned future spending of allocated/awarded COVID-19 federal relief monies (awards), as required by Laws 2021, Ch. 408, §54.

This special report also provides Arizona Department of Education (ADE)-reported spending in FY 2022 and in total through June 30, 2022, and planned future spending of the discretionary COVID-19 federal relief monies that it received, as required by the law. This information is included below the dashboards.

ADDITIONAL LINKS

- Special report
- Data file

SHARE

+ Share / Save f t r

COVID-19 Navigation Page

Special Report

Home » Arizona school districts' and charter schools', and ADE's discretionary , COVID-19 federal relief spending—in fiscal year 2022 and in total through June 30, 2022

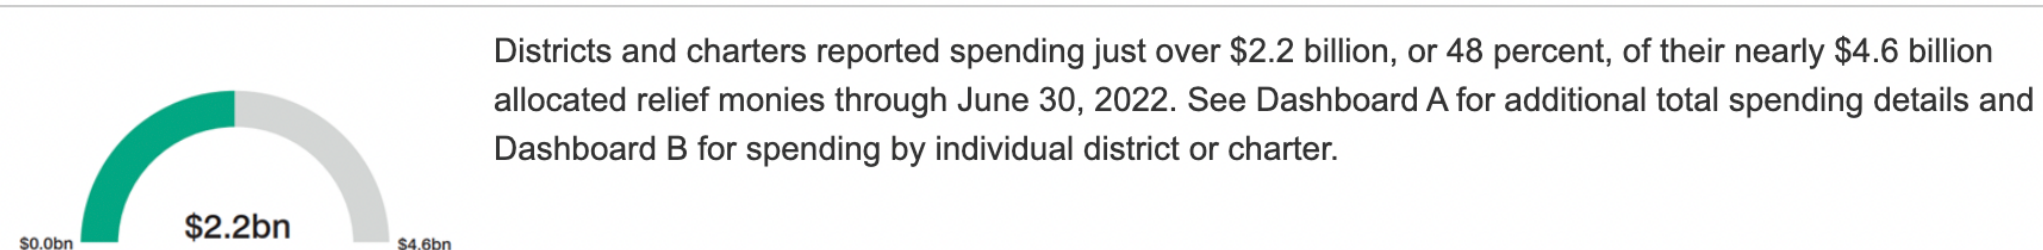

Arizona school districts' and charter schools', and ADE's discretionary, COVID-19 federal relief spending—in fiscal year 2022 and in total through June 30, 2022

This special report provides summary information and 4 interactive dashboards with Arizona school districts' and charter schools' (districts and charters) reported spending in fiscal year (FY) 2022 and in total through June 30, 2022, and planned future spending of allocated/awarded (awarded) COVID-19 federal relief monies (relief monies), as required by Laws 2021, Ch. 408, §54.

This special report also provides Arizona Department of Education (ADE)-reported spending in FY 2022 and in total through June 30, 2022, and planned future spending of the discretionary COVID-19 federal relief monies that it received, as required by the law. This information is included below the dashboards.

Summary

Districts and charters reported spending $2.2 billion, or almost half, of their relief monies through June 30, 2022

ADE had yet to spend/distribute almost $322 million, or 79 percent, of its discretionary relief monies as of June 30, 2022

This page provides the statewide data for COVID-19 spending

Dashboard A - Total...

Dashboard B - Total
spending by distric...

Dashboard C -
Spending in addition to/instead of State..

Dashboard D - FY
2022 spending by
districts and charters

Filter data by legislative district

All

Filter school list by county

All

Filter school list by type (district or charter)

All

To clear a filter: Hover over a dropdown and then click the eraser icon that appears above the dropdown arrow.

Scroll down on the page to find this data box. You can find the same statewide data presented above here.

Dashboard A - Tota..

Dashboard B - Total
spending by districts...

Dashboard C -
Spending in addition
to/instead of State..

Dashboard D - FY
2022 spending by
districts and charters

Filter school list by county

All

Filter school list by type (district or charter)

All

Select a school

All

If you want to find your district —————> Dashboard B

Dashboard A - Tota..

Dashboard B - Total spending by districts...

Dashboard C - Spending in addition to/instead of State..

Dashboard D - FY 2022 spending by districts and charters

Filter school list by county

All [dropdown arrow]

Filter school list by type (district or charter)

All [dropdown arrow] [filter icon] [refresh icon]

Select a school

All [dropdown arrow]

scottsdale uni|

Scottsdale Unified School District (5) (6) (8)

If you want to find your district —> Dashboard B —> Select a School

Scottsdale Unified School District (5) (6) (8)

Some school names include a number(s) in parentheses. The numbers correspond to the footnotes at the bottom of this page.

District District or Charter	30 Number of schools	3, 4, 8 Legislative district	Maricopa County
--	--------------------------------	--	---------------------------

Total spending of available awards through June 30, 2022

Total COVID-19 federal relief awards, spending, and amount remaining through June 30, 2022

Scottsdale Unified Example