Whistleblowing

Whistleblowing is the process by which employees can report suspected or actual improper conduct. Our whistleblowing training course helps you to understand when, how and to whom they can report misconduct and how they will be protected.

At the end of the session care workers will:

- Understand the legislation and standards governing raising concerns at work
- Understand the importance of raising concerns in an appropriate manner
- Understand the difference between a Grievance and a Public Interest Disclosure
- Understand their role and that of their manager with regard to raising concerns.
