Lessons from the Writing Wilderness

How I Survived the Journey to Become a Christian Author—and How You Can Too!

ISBN: 978-0-578-73189-6 82 pages

Retail: $12.95 Wholesale: $7.77

Though many feel a calling to write within the Christian market, it can be overwhelming for new writers to discover how to begin the journey to write for ministry and publication that gives God glory and serves others well. With warmth and transparency, the author shares the story of her call and journey to become a Christian author.

Readers will learn how the author answered the call to write for ministry, how she prepared for her new calling, how she navigated the personal challenges she encountered and overcame along the way, how she never gave up until she reached her destination to become a Christian author, and how you can do it too! If God is calling you to write for His Kingdom, you'll find a wealth of practical guidance and helpful tips on the pages of this book, along with a friendly and helpful companion for your journey to become a Christian author.

Jeaninne has written an excellent parallel between a writer's journey and biblical journeys toward trust and reliance upon God. From the first whisperings of the call to become a Kingdom author to the moment you hold your first book in hand, the inaugural voyage can be daunting. Writers will find spiritual and practical encouragement throughout this anointed book.
