

Attendee Rules Of Conduct

The first phase of the real Church cell groups are designed as a support group for truthers that have struggled with the emotional challenges of confusion, frustration, anger isolation and rejection because of their beliefs.

The format for these meetings is simple.... The host will open the meeting and will either read the meeting content themselves or ask for volunteers. After the read through...each person will have a chance to introduce themselves..... and give a short explanation of why they are there. After that, the sharing portion of the meeting begins. At this point each person will spontaneously take the opportunity to share their heart.....express their fears concerns.... their victories or whatever they want with the other attendees.

The rules of the meeting are designed to allow each attendee to share whatever they like without interruption by other attendees or any crosstalk at the end of their share. Once they are done the next person will go.

The tradition is to greet the person when they begin their share and end their share by saying "thanks"

All attendees are asked to refrain from crosstalk, giving advice, giving encouragement beyond a few words, or any crosstalk of any kind. There will be time for that at the end of the meeting or in other meetings.

This is certainly not a platform for debate.... for rebuking people.... for giving advice or for taking the other side of someone's position.

Attendees are asked to follow the following guidelines;

- Try to stay within the allotted time that the host will give you for your share at the beginning of the meeting
- If the host chooses to interrupt you for some reason..... they have been trained to do so.....please be respectful
- Because real church is a Christian Fellowship, and we are fundamentalist conservative Bible Believers and followers of Jesus Christ we ask that attendees respect those beliefs by observing the following meeting conduct guidelines
 - Please refrain from cursing or the use of foul language
 - Off color jokes or being cynical or teasing and making fun of people
 - No yelling
 - This is a fellowship of Christian truthers. We therefore welcome and are open to new ideas. However, as Christians, there are certain absolutes and thresholds that we will not entertain. Anyone espousing satanism, pedophilia, sexual immorality, violence or wildly unbiblical ideas will be interrupted by the moderator. If you refuse to comply with these guidelines, you will be removed from the cell group.