2.55

KINGMAN

Very fit. Relaxed / alert pre-parade ring, alert paddock. 2 handlers throughout. Went down really well. Impressive win. Very positive coming back in, did not at all have a hard race. Globeform 117p

NIGHT OF THUNDER (2nd)

Extremely fit. Alert preliminaries. Free going down. Did not blow much after the race.

MASTER CARPENTER (3rd)

Very fit. Compact sort, looks a sprinter. Went down ok.

Lat Hawill (4th)

Extremely fit. Shiny. Relaxed preliminaries. Went down well. Did not blow much after the race.

Taken off the Notebook list.

Astaire (5th)

Fit. Bright paddock. Pulled going down.

Golden Town (6th)

Clipped. Fit. Taken down slowly / pulling. Ran green and with some promise, but may be tried too highly.

Taken off the Notebook list.

Windfast (7th)

Done some work. Relaxed paddock, keen / pulling going down.

No Leaf Clover (8th)

Fit. Nervous preliminaries. Taken down slowly.

Berkshire (9th)

Shiny, most attractive colt with scope. Fit. Well behaved pre-parade, but immature in paddock and also on the way down (same as at Newmarket last year). Pulled very hard in the race.

Taken off the Notebook list.

EAGLE TOP

Bordering on very fit. Small, strong colt. Extremely relaxed pre-parade and paddock and clearly mentally strong (this was his debut). Went down really, held up and given plenty to do, but came through to get up close home. 4/6 fav.

AUTOMATED (2nd)

Very fit. Bit immature paddock. Keen going down. Did not blow much after race. Nearly stole this race from the front. Ran third, 25 lengths behind Hartnell, in the Zetland Stakes (LR) last year. The 10-lengths runner-up in that race, Montaly, also won first time out this year (off 79 in Lingfield handicap).

LE MAITRE CHAT (3rd) Debut. Done some work. Pulled going down.

Sayed Youmzain (4th) Looked like he had done light work only. Bright / alert / relaxed preliminaries. Nice sort with scope. Growing. Was blowing a little after the race.

New Notebook Horse.

Norab (5th)

Fit. A little immature. Nice sort with plenty of scope (growing). Sweating between hind legs. Taken down quietly. Very positive coming back in.

New Notebook Horse.

Sternrubin (6th)

Dull coat. Bordering on very fit. Bright / relaxed / bit immature. Leggy.

Lmousine (7th)

Debut. Wintry / dull coat. Bit immature preliminaries. Pulled hard going down.

Cinnilla (8th)

Done some work. Filly without much scope. Free to post.

Catadupa (9th)

Debut. Sister to John Porter winner Cubanita. Dull coat. Done some work. Bright paddock but swishing her tail. Free going down.

Kisanji(10th)

Dull coat. Very fit (ran 2 weeks ago). Small / no scope. Immature going down.

Dark Days (11th)

Debut. Not fit. Very immature.

Fort Berkeley (12th)

Debut. Done some work. Immature.

Bergan (last)

Done some work. Relaxed preliminaries. Small. Keen to post.

Notes on WINNERS and other horses of interest

2.00

KSAB

Shiny, looked really well, slightly dappled. Fit. Early sort but has scope. On the small side, well made. Had 2 handlers paddock but quite relaxed, mentally well balanced. Went down best of all. Did not blow much after the race.

Recommended: £25 EW when 16-1 (SP 10-1)

CHARLIE'S STAR (2nd) Fit (ran 2nd on AW two weeks ago and only runner with experience.

BE BOLD (5th) Early sort. Small. Fit. Bright / relaxed paddock. Immature going down. Likely to win next time but also likely to start favourite then.

Eight of the 14 runners were given a negative score after pre parade ring, paddock and cantering down, notes on these below - in racecard order:

Arlecchino's Leap Very immature paddock / pulled going down.

Ballymore Castle (3rd) Very fit but also very immature paddock. Free going down. Sweating under saddle after race.

Diamond Sam Bordering on very fit. Immature paddock & going down.

Justice Good Bordering on very fit. Relaxed / bright paddock, but dull / wintry in his coat. Small. Went down well but bit stressed after the race.

King Crimson Fit. Immature paddock, very immature going down. Small / short.

Magical Memory (fav) Good sort. Not fit. Grinding teeth paddock. Taken down slowly.

The Paco Kid Very fit. Immature / nervous. Narrow and weak, Pulled going down.

Now Say Booom Immature / nervous, 2 handlers. No scope. Immature going down.

INCHILA

Leggy filly with scope. Grinding teeth in pre-parade ring but bright / alert / relaxed in paddock. Did not look particularly fit but did not blow much after the race, so either she was fit anyway or she is much better than these and won without being fit. She was pulling on the way down.

CASCADING (2nd) Small / no scope.

CRITERIA (3rd) Clipped. Not a good looking filly. Sweating between hind legs. Went down last and taken down slowly.

Nancy From Nairobi (4th) Very fit. Shiny coat.

Almashooqa (6th) The most attractive filly, in what was the best division of this maiden. Shiny / dappled, about to gain fitness. Relaxed / bright paddock. Keen on the way down. Blowing hard after the race. New Notebook Horse.

Cascading Showing ribs. Small / no scope.

Dorset Cream (5th) Dull coat. Very fit.

Lady Day (10th) Good sort. Plenty of scope. Dull coat. Done some work. Relaxed / bright paddock. 40-1. Slow start / tailed off. Blowing after race.
