HUNTER'S COTTAGE, MOORFIELD, MAIN STREET, ST BOSWELLS, TD6 0AT

DIRECTIONS

From A68: When you reach the village of St Boswells, turn opposite the Buccleuch Arms onto the Main Street/B6404. You will pass the Borders Gunroom on your left, turn right almost directly opposite the butchers onto the narrow lane between the village hall (with red phone box outside) and the church - you will see a sign for Hunters Stables. Follow the lane beyond Hunters Stables and Hunters Cottage has the wood-cladded porch.

From Kelso / A699: Continue over Kelso Old Bridge and turn right onto the A699 signposted St. Boswells. Follow the road for approximately 10 miles passing through the village of Maxton. At the T junction at St. Boswells, take a right turn onto the A68 before turning right again opposite the Buccleuch Arms onto the Main Street/B6404. You will pass the Borders Gunroom on your left, turn right almost directly opposite the butchers onto the narrow lane between the village hall (with red phone box outside) and the church - you will see a sign for Hunters Stables. Follow the lane beyond Hunters Stables and Hunters Cottage has the wood-cladded porch.

ARRIVAL & DEPARTURE TIME

Unless otherwise agreed, entry to the property is 4pm and departure is 10am. Please respect the arrival and departure times. This is to allow enough time for the property to be fully prepared for you or the next guests.

We would ask that you please leave the property as you found it, in a clean and tidy condition - thank you.

PARKING

Private parking for one car is available directly to the right side of the property.

Please also be aware that the restaurant next door has an outside eating area with 6 tables just in front of the cottage garden which is used from April to September. When driving down the lane, please approach slowly and park carefully.
