

Wisconsin Society of Emergency Services Instructors Instructor of the Year Award

The Instructor of the Year Award recognizes individuals for extraordinary accomplishments in emergency services training. The winner:

- Will have displayed a deep commitment to furthering the cause of the fire and emergency services through training
- Will have advanced the cause of responder operational effectiveness and safety
- Will have gone above and beyond the call of duty in training
- Will have brought creativity and innovation to public safety training programs, or will have shown great persistence in pursuing an innovative program
- Will have served as a positive model for responders and other instructors

The award recognizes individual accomplishment. While members of an instructional team or training group may be considered, nominations of a fire department or training academy are not eligible.
