AGM
Sunday morning
about 10.00 am
Place to TBA

Hi all Brahma club members.

Well it has been one off those years for our club, as some of our committee have had major changes in their lives moving their brahmas from one property to a new property, it is hard enough moving house or a whole farm, let alone chooks, cows, llamas, kids finding schools, jobs, changing careers and working hard at university, and coping with all the drama that goes with these changes in life, so lets hope things work out well and leads to a new lease of life for all.

I am moving farms at the moment so I apologize to members that I have not been around to help. I will have a lot more time next year as I am about to retire and that will make life a hole lot easier, I have new pens and poultry runs to build and all that takes time but I am looking forward to a new adventure in far east Gippsland

Belinda, Paul and Victoria are very busy with changes to their lives Luke is always busy at uni and travelling all over the country. So we are looking for a little help at our AGM on Saturday the 9th July so if anybody has the time to help it would be greatly appreciated, we need a secretary to give Belinda a rest as she is very busy and help Paul with the cochin club. Our finances are in good shape our club just needs a little help and we will be back on track

BRAHMA and COCHIN show will be held on Saturday the 9th July at the Queanbeyan poultry club Canberra in conjunction with the Orpington club of Australian ,this makes things easy for us Dallas Smith from the Orpington club has arranged a judge Kim George to judge our show Kim has vast experience in judging poultry and is very informed regarding brahmas and cochins the judging will start at 1 pm on the Saturday so make sure all our birds are penned by 11 am. Some members will be arriving on the Friday and the rest the next morning, we have been invited to have dinner with the Orpington club after the show that evening at 7.30 then maybe we have our AGM on the Sunday morning about 10.00 am please let me know if this is ok as Dallas needs to know numbers

Belinda has put our show schedule together and I am hoping to see as many Brahma and cochin breeders bring their birds as possible anyone that needs help just let me know and I am sure we can arrange something anyone wanting brahmas to take home just let me know, so fill in the show schedule send it back as soon as you have an idea so we can work out how many pens are needed

Motels that most of the poultry clubs are staying at are 0262974711, 0262077366, 0262971777 so lets make it a good weekend and it will be good to catch up with everybody again

Regards Bryan

Club Rules

All birds must be penned before 10.30am (The pavilion will be open 8am show day. Please let us know if you need to get in at other times. Contact Bryan on 0415303464)

1. Entry fees must accompany all entries, and the entry form must be filled and returned.
2. Sick or injured birds will not be accepted for judging.
3. The committee will take every care but no responsibility for loss or damage to any bird.
4. The judges' decision with regards to awarding or rejecting any bird is final.
5. No birds may be removed from their pen by any person unless under the supervision of the chief steward or their delegate.

A class shall consist a minimum of 6 birds and 2 breeders except the 'premier 3' – Dark, Light and Partridge. Three new classes have replaced certain classes to reflect the new standards and their colours, and to alleviate big numbers in the AOC class. New classes are Columbian AC (All Colours), Self Colour AC, and Barred AC. See below for the breakdown of these new classes. The committee reserves the right to create, group or eliminate a class when necessary. Please clearly indicate the colour and type of all birds on the entry form.
