FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

As Christians, love has become our identity. We are commanded in the Bible to love one another and that is what we do in the body of Christ. Our words, actions and devotion to others and the things of God are different ways in which we express love. But if you are asked, “what is Love?” will you be able to answer that question? What does it mean to love God and to love others? This edition of our Glorious Newsletter is centered on Love. Love is a word that comes and goes in the Christendom. We all say it, but do we really mean it? Do we really love one another as we are asked to? Do we truly know the meaning of the word Love? Sit back and be inspired as you read the inspirational words, testimonies and the write ups from our Father the National Chairman to some of our leaders and members respectively.

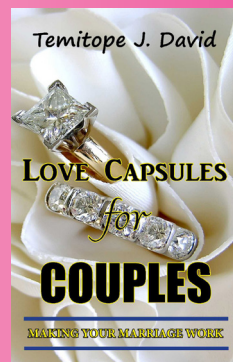

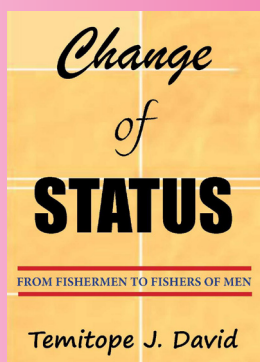

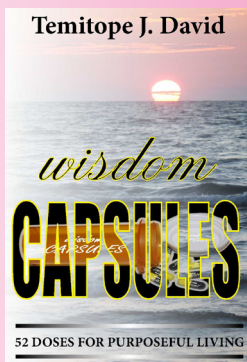

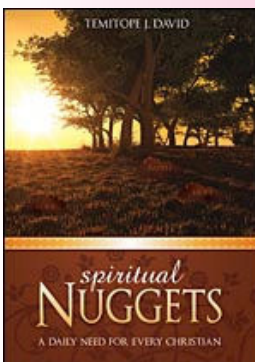

We are truly blessed in this ministry when you consider all this wealth of knowledge. I am very confident that by the time you finish reading this newsletter, you will be able to define love and live life knowing you are fully loved. Please remember that we need your help. Kindly send pictures or information of what is going on in your assemblies. They will be included in our upcoming edition. Thank you for your support and prayers towards this project. You are loved!

LOVE !

Praise the Lord! Our focus in this edition is LOVE! What is love? I remember four types of love: Physical love (eros), Family love (storge), Affectionate love (philia), and Love of choice (agape). We will look at “Love” from two perspectives, as recorded in the book of Matthew 22: 37. “Jesus said unto him, thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind” (V. 39) “...thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.” So, I will break down the definition into physical and spiritual love.

Physical Love

Love is an intense feeling of deep affection for someone or something. It is also the feelings empowered by determination. It is not enough to say I love you if you do not put it into action, it will not be recognized. A person who professed to love football will reveal it through his constant practice on the field. In other words, it will be shown in his character. As it was commanded by our Lord Jesus Christ, “love your neighbor as yourself,” it has to do with actions generated through us to our neighbor and vice versa. Love is manifested by our actions and our actions are propelled by our determinations. As husband and wife, love between them at first could be spontaneous but will endure through determination. One thing is certain, true love never fades.

Spiritual Love

God is love. Love started from Him, and through Him, we know what love really is. In the way He expresses love to us, He is expecting us to do the same to Him. Our love to Him must be genuine and enduring. He commanded us to love Him with all our hearts, souls, and minds without reservation. God is calling for our total attention. The scriptures tell us in the book of 1John 3:1, “What manner of love the father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God.” The verse reveals the action of God to love us, doing so voluntarily. We also ought to respond accordingly. Apostle Paul tells us in the book of Romans 12:9 (KJV), “Let love be without dissimulation,” meaning we should exhibit love without hypocrisy.

Characteristics of Love

I will limit this to what was recorded in the book of 1 Corinthians 13: 4-8a (NKJV, NASB) it says:

1. Love is patient
2. Love is kind
3. Love does not envy
4. Love does not brag
5. Love is not arrogant
6. Love does not behave rudely
7. Love does not seek its own
8. Love is not easily provoked
9. Love thinks no evil
10. Love does not rejoice in iniquity
11. Love rejoices in the truth
12. Love bears all things
13. Love believes all things
14. Love hopes all things
15. Love endures all things
16. Love never fails

Therefore, as we continue to serve the Lord, let us obey His commandment to love one another.

LIFE IS BEAUTIFUL

The late Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. once said,

“Hatred paralyzes life; love releases it.

Hatred confuses life; love harmonizes it.

Hatred darkens life; love illumines it.”

Is life indeed beautiful?

The answer to this question is as diverse as can possibly be imagined. While some people believe that life is very cruel, unfair and wicked, others think it is extremely beautiful. All I am saying is that life deals with us in different ways in relations to our destinies and timings that is different. Let us use this as an example, a lady who kept her bed undefiled until after marriage and ten (10) years or more later is still praying to God for the fruit of the womb. What do you think her thoughts about life would be? Your guess is as good as mine...She will probably believe life is unfair. On the other hand, a lady who had defiled her bed with innumerable men, had several abortions, eventually got married and gave birth to a set of twins nine (9) months after getting married...She would probably believe that life is beautiful, fascinating, wonderful and sweet. Don't get me wrong, I am not saying the second lady did the right thing! The birth of Esau and Jacob in the Bible is another very good example of the two different ends to life...born of the same mother but with two different destinies. While some people, based on their negative life experiences are regretting and complaining about their existence, others are thanking God and blessing their parents for bringing them to this beautiful world of life that has been very good to them.

Life is a puzzle; and in trying to put the pieces one after the other, sometimes we are not too sure how it will fit together into the puzzle. Why? This is because life is all about uncertainty and fear of the unknown and maybe this is part of what makes life really beautiful. Yes, I agree with you that life is hard sometimes but with God, there is enough grace to strengthen us according to Psalm 27:1 (KJV). I have had some challenges in life but these challenges have made life better and beautiful. These challenges have made me stronger and I have realised the sweetness in being alive.

Life is as you experience it – the present will be a past in the future. It can also be very beautiful if we do our best and leave the rest. Some of us worry too much about how to improve our lives and become accepted in the society. By doing this, we quickly forget about our destiny that is rooted in the God-factor and focus extensively on our human wisdom and ability. We forget Philippians 4:13 (ESV) that says, “I can do all things through him who strengthens me”. Sometimes we compare our achievements with that of our peers and become more aggressive about life. Please note! I am not saying that we should not be ambitious but when you sometimes believe that if we are not where we should be at a particular time in our lives, then life cannot be beautiful or enjoyable...THIS IS A FALLACY! What you should know is that you can always make life beautiful.

All you have to do is listen to your heart, shine your eyes and open your ears wide not be ignorant of information and opportunities of life. Again you need to see things differently and believe in miracles, and as a matter of fact, MIRACLES EXIST (Ecclesiastes 9:11).

In life, there is beauty everywhere. According to Confucius, ‘Everything has beauty but not everyone sees it’. You need to bring this consciousness into your daily existence, you need to focus on your circle of influence (things you have power over) by being proactive and not disturb yourself on your circle of concern (things you do not have power over) by being reactive. To live life beautifully, you need to imbibe a non-judgemental attitude, believe that people's values are different, always be in a positive mood (have the “I can attitude”), have a forgiving spirit, live without limits, focus on the good, lend a helping hand and even though you are ambitious, take life very easy. Life is fascinating, wonderful and very beautiful. You can only experience this beauty through a state of peace and never through a state of condemnation. Ralph Waldo Emerson said, “Nothing can bring you peace but yourself”. Always open your heart by accepting yourself with forgiveness and extending same to others. You should always let go by doing all you can to make your life better and leave the rest. I Thessalonians 5:16-18(ESV) says, “Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you”. Remember there is no perfect life, and as for human beings; be aware that their needs are forever insatiable.

Take time once in a while to visit places like psychiatric hospitals, intensive care units, accident wards, motherless babies’ homes, etc. and see how some people are holding on to life at all cost using life support systems. Some people can’t even talk, walk, sit, eat or breathe normally like you do and all we say is that life is cruel, unfair or bad. We need to visit these places and renew our beliefs, hopes, opinions and thinking to affirm that our present life is a privilege that is very beautiful. William James said, “Believe that life is worth living and your belief will help create the fact. But in all, never forget that the GOD-FACTOR cannot be ruled out as to how your life is positioned (Psalm 127:1).

So lastly, I leave you with this question; is life indeed beautiful for you?

LOVE ONE ANOTHER

Love is a caring commitment, in which affection and delight are shown to others; which is grounded in the nature of God itself.

Love is a strong affection for another, God’s love means that God eternally gives off himself to others. It is self-giving for the benefits of others.

This attribute of God shows that it is part of His nature to give up Himself in order to bring about blessing or good for others, (Romans 5:8, John 3:16) Christ died on the cross for the benefit one another.

In John 13:34-35 Jesus Christ expressed three vital things:

- Declaration – love one another.
- Pattern – as I have loved you, so you must love one another.
- Difference – your love for others will be the unique mark of God on your life.

Love is the key message in the kingdom of God:

- Love is greater than faith and hope. 1 Corinthians 13:13
- Without love, acts of service are meaningless. 1 Corinthians 13:1-3
- Love is the fulfillment of the law. Romans 13:10
- Love is one of the attributes by which God is described. 1 John 4:16

Jesus’ new commandment (John 13:34) presented a new standard for three reasons:

1. It was sacrificial love modeled after His love for us “as I love you”.
2. It is produced through the new covenant by the transforming power of the Holy Spirit. Love one another can only manifest through the Holy Spirit within.
3. It establishes and maintains fellowship.

Conclusion:

Question: How can “love for one another” be explained and demonstrated?

Answer: I am to act in a certain way pleasing to God towards you and you should respond in ways pleasing to God towards me.

Scriptures: John 13:34-35, 1 Corinthians 13:1, 1 Thessalonians 3:12, 4:9, 1 Peter 4:8, 1 John 4:21

THE STORY OF MY LIFE

*It pays to serve Jesus; I speak from my heart,
He'll always be with us, if we do our part.
There's naught in this wide world can pleasure afford.
There's peace and contentment in serving the Lord.
I'll love Him far better than in days of yore
I'll serve Him more truly than ever before
I'll do as He bids me whatever the cost
I'll be a true soldier; I'll die at my post*

This song speaks volumes about my life experiences before and after I met our Lord Jesus Christ, my Redeemer, Savior and most importantly my Lord.

My names are Hamdat Mojere. Hamdat is a muslim name because I came from a muslim family and environment. Despite the fact that my mom was a nominal Christian; yet the family was still traditionalist. I attended Islamic school briefly before I ran away. My mom was a disciplinarian and hard working woman hence, we the 5 children (a son and four girls), are cultured. My step-mother also had 5 Children. I am the fourth child of my father and mother.

As a young girl, I stayed with my paternal Aunt of a blessed memory. She was Christian, though not born again; she sowed seeds of salvation into my life. From my childhood I had this instinct in me that the hands of God were upon me, which was also confirmed by our landlady. I never knew what it was until years later. Despite this inclination at childhood the sinful nature manifested from my Primary days to Adolescent age. I was a chameleon type of girl, cultured at home but the opposite at school because nobody monitored me.

In my school days, I repeated classes once in Primary and again in Secondary school. My mom never knew since she was illiterate. I framed unimaginable lies. My siblings that could mentor and monitor me had relocated with our aunt to Ibadan. In high school I was brilliant yet never serious; I snuck out of school to play outside while others were in class. The funniest part is that I was the most punctual and regular student in the whole school especially at the Assembly. This earned me a punctuality award, but I was never regular in the class. As big girls, we were members of the School Christian Fellowship, but we also had boyfriends. However, the fellowship Coordinator never gave up on us. I wondered why and thank God we all became born again Christians.

MY CONVERSION

My failure to make promotion to the final class opened the door to my salvation. I became serious with fellowship, distributing tracts all over. Yet I wasn't born again. Precisely on December 12th 1976, God double crossed me during an outreach program organized by Gospel Faith Mission Church. It was Jesus' crucifixion film that melted my heart of worldly pleasure when the Preacher spoke about all the agonies Jesus bore for me. There I totally surrendered my life to Christ and later became a member of the church.

My life changed completely and my academic performance tremendously improved. This was the first testimony my family confirmed. Yet I was labeled a "fanatic" because of my passion for Christ.

LIFE AFTER CONVERSION

My new life became a great concern to my family who felt that my newly found faith was only meant for those frustrated or dropped-out people. Truthfully, at that time, some brethren were withdrawing from school with the anticipation that Jesus would soon come. When their pressure could not change me, I was rejected and neglected.

God stood by me throughout my college years. My aunty made a statement that I would soon renounce my faith and come back to them, but thank God they are the people joining me in my “Fanaticism,” because they saw genuine changes and testimonies of God’s faithfulness in my academics and behavior.

TESTIMONIES

I will ever be grateful to God because I serve a living God. There was a clear testimony when I had twin daughters as my first born after child bearing was delayed for almost ten years. I deliberately broke my first relationship of about five years when my fiancé backslid, I told him emphatically that I would not trade my salvation for marriage or compromise my faith in Christ. It took me about six years to get the man of my dreams out of many proposals. In my waiting period, I challenged God to compensate my patience for His will with twins which He honored. Because of my advanced age, we asked God to give us a son and God agreed to it again. God gave me the husband and in-laws of my dreams, because I desired a happy Christian home and I am very grateful for this.

Thank God that today I am the pastor and the priest to all my siblings by the grace of God. In the extended family, paternal and maternal, God has raised for Himself Children of the Kingdom; among them are Pastors and Missionaries, through passionate intercession. Like Apostle John, I have no pleasure than seeing my people walking in truth. I praise the Lord for His faithfulness and for many other testimonies that space can not contain.

CONCLUSION

Are you of two opinions whether to go with Jesus or the world? The world gives temporal blessings added with sorrow, but God gives both temporal and eternal blessings. You have nothing to lose but crisis if sincerely you accept Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior. It pays to acknowledge Jesus Lordship early enough in life so that you can rejoice throughout your years.

SUMMARY REPORT OF WASHINGTON DC DISTRICT 2018 WOMEN'S CONFERENCE

The Washington DC District women's conference was held on the 19th over 21st of October 2018 and was hosted by Washington DC Assembly. The conference theme was, "I AM THAT I AM" [Exodus 3:14] as prophetically given.

To the glory of God Almighty, the District Women converged on the first day of their biennial conference, the 19th of October 2018, aimed for spiritual, physical and psychological growth of each woman towards the eternal hope of a believer. It is not an exaggeration to conclude that the conference was truly unique and historic for there was downpour of blessings from above and of a truth, we were richly blessed. Friday the 19th, women visited the Bible Museum in downtown area of DC; this was very inspiring to see the beautiful artwork and history of the Bible.

WELCOME SERVICE: Welcome service was held at 6.00PM and was well attended by all District ministers and saints of God. Deaconess Orejimi of the host assembly gave a welcome speech and our mother the District Women Leader, Deaconess Dorcas Falaye declared the conference opened, she appreciated all women and encouraged them to continue in good service unto our Lord. Deaconess Adeyinka in like manner, advised women of the reward awaiting those who serve the Lord faithfully.

PRAISE AND WORSHIP: The District Women Choir coordinated by Deaconess Ojo ushered the congregation into the mood of worship with spirit filled songs of praises and adoration unto the Most High God during the course of the three days. We all fellowshiped together as a chosen Nation and Royal Priesthood of God.

KEY SPEAKERS: The guest Speaker Deaconess R. Adeogun expounded the conference theme, "I AM THAT I AM" and the importance of applying this to our day to day livelihood. Deaconess U. David gave a sound teaching on making heaven, a task for all believers. While Deaconess Aregbesola analyzed how Women can sustain their marriages in this present age. Deaconess Arowosegbe imbued women in her presentation on the importance to be empowered through education for knowledge is power. Thereafter, conference participants had the opportunity to ask questions on all topics.

DINNER NIGHT: The dinner night was one of its kind, The choir performed gloriously, the concert was spirit filled. I cannot but mention the variety yet tasty food served to nourish the souls of all guests.

The grand finale was on Sunday the 21st, all the saints fellowshiped in one accord showering praises to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. All the fathers in the Lord were present, Elders, Deacons including youth and children. The National Chairman and District Apostle, Pastor Emmanuel Falaye admonished all the saints present in the Word of God and blessed all immensely through the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. Alleluia.

On behalf of our mother the Women District Leader, Deaconess Falaye, all ministers' wives, Conference Planning Committee and the entire District Women, we appreciate all mothers, fathers, children and friends who supported us for the success of the conference. We also seize this opportunity to invite you all to our forth coming 2020 conference which is fast approaching and holding in VIRGINA BEACH. It is my earnest prayer that the Almighty God will spare our lives beyond those days. Thank you all.
