Students responses as part of a journal every week for recent experience's with Bricolage and Midnight Radio. Their answers were really telling to me about how the students viewed the Midnight Radio program, and how much joy it brought them.

The question on Wednesday said "What would you say to a student who would be doing the radio program next year?"

I would say have fun and don't be nervous because once you get started it isn't that nerve racking. - Rebecca pd 2

I hope you have fun like we did it was a fun-Colton pd 2

That they will have lots of fun and to not be shy and that foley sound effects are the best. -Olivia pd 2

You will have fun with it, and it's a blast. -Connor pd 3

I would tell them how much fun it is and to make sure you participate because it's fun and all the people helping with it are super super nice and they will have a lot of fun - Jada pd 3

I would say it was fun way to learn what you are studying. You learn how to use your imagination, use different things for sounds, to go back in time to do live radio and work together as a team. -Dylan pd 6

It is really fun.Look forward to doing it. -Cooper pf 6

It is really fun and you should definitely do it,it is worth all the work.-Aubree pd 6

Just be yourself and let your creativity out and never give up it's a lot of fun-Isabel pd 8

It is something you will remember for a long time-Camden pd 8

It is a really fun opportunity to work together with classmates, and learn about writing and speaking. You do have to have a lot of attention, and work hard, but when you do it can be really fun. Lauren pd 8

I would say to be prepared and to not be scared about preforming because everyone probably is. It's fun to do with ur friends and interesting. -Elly pd 8

I would tell them that even if you're scared to be brave (EVEN THOUGH I'M TERRIFIED TOO!!!!!!!!!!!!!!)-Carly pd 9

It is the best program you would ever do. -Kyhaire pd 10

To try your hardest when writing you never know what you might find out about yourself. -Izzy pd 10

The program is a fun and exciting experience and amazing-Cayden pd 10

The question on Thursday said "How do you think your group did yesterday in dress rehearsal?"

I felt that everyone did a good job in rehearsal. It was exciting to see all the different classes projects come together. -Dylan pd 6

It was really fun I wish that it could last forever though. -Evelyn pd 8

I think we did good it was fun to spend the day with my friends. - Brookelynn pd 10

And finally, Friday's journal asked "How did you feel performing in front of people yesterday?"

I was nervous at first but once we started, my fear left and I wanted to do a good job and enjoy the moment. -Dylan pd 6

I was excited, I wasn't nervous at all. I had so much fun on stage-Rayah pd 6

I was nervous at first but then I had a lot of fun. - Evelyn pd 8

Great, and my entire group did extremely well-Jackson pd 8

*I felt pretty good. I like hearing the sound of people applauding for you because we worked really hard on our plays, and it pays off. It was nice to show everyone the plays we wrote. -
Lauren pd 8*

I felt nervous but also it was really fun. I enjoyed doing it and had a great time. -Mya pd 10

It was fun just a little scary but a great experience really sad it ended 😞-Izzy pd 10

I would like to sincerely thank the both of you (Bricolage & Rural Arts Collaborative) for bringing this program to AG South. Words cannot express my level of gratitude for this. I wish I could share all of the glowing feedback and love that was shared with me about this program from faculty, administration, and especially the parents. If you would ever like to return we would love to have you.

Thank you, thank you, thank you.
