

Rev. Smith Park Service Speaker

The Rev. Frank A. Smith, pastor of Trinity CME Church, will speak at 7:30 p.m. United Summer Park Services Sunday in the large pavilion in Fairview Park.

"Handicapped Lives," will be the topic of his sermon.

The Municipal Band will play for a half-hour preceding the service.

The Gospel Singers of the Trinity CME Church and Mrs. Mary Beth Ping will sing during the service.

Mrs. Ping is the wife of the Rev. William F. Ping, pastor of the South Shores Evangelical United Brethren Church, who will lead the worship.

The Rev. Orville Salzman, pastor of the Third Evangelical United Brethren Church and president of the Decatur Council of Churches, will be the park speaker July 31.

The United Park Services are sponsored by the Decatur Council of Churches. Donations at the services are used to support the council's Weekday Religious Education program.
