Q&A: Public Life

Question:

If we have a separation of church and state, how should faith influence the way we act in society, especially for those who have a role in the government?

Answer:

No matter who we are, our inner lives affect the way we interact with the world. In the United States, we have freedom of religion. That means there is no official state-sanctioned religion. This does not mean that our faith is a private affair with no impact on public life! We have the ability to freely exercise our religious beliefs in accord with our conscience. Not only do we have the option to do so, but we also have the responsibility.

We're called to imitate Christ in every area of our life, not compartmentalize our faith. This means acting with respect and honoring the common humanity all we encounter. It means recognizing the person behind the politics. It also means standing up for the truth of human life and dignity, and advocating for just policies that serve the common good. The Vatican has produced a "Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church." It contains more detailed exposition of how our Catholic faith relates to various aspects of public life.

Capital Campaign

In order to count for the capital campaign, pledges have to be in by this Wednesday, Nov. 23 (end date of campaign).

Thank you to everyone - co-chairs, volunteers and all who have contributed to the campaign. Because of the early bulletin deadline, we don't have current numbers for this week but we are nearing our goal!

We know that some people do not want to fill out a pledge card. After discussing this with our campaign representative, this is an alternative he gave us: In this situation the parish would fill in a pledge card labeled anonymous or attach a note that explains this is from an anonymous donor. The parishioner would pay the parish directly. (Make out the check to St. Joseph Parish.) The parish then makes out a check to the Diocese using a blank pledge card with the word anonymous donor on it. If you would like make your payments this way, please let Father Gus or Mary Uttecht.

Please let us know if you have any questions.

If you prefer not to make out a pledge card at all, a one time donation is perfectly acceptable. Whatever you can do to help us make this campaign a success is appreciated.

God Bless you all.
