

CEMETERY CLEANUP

Walt Mateja

More than 40 volunteers helped remove holiday decorations at Riverview Cemetery in Wilmington on Feb. 12 and sorted materials for composting, recycling and trash. Volunteers used a wood chipper that the Historic Friends of Riverview Cemetery purchased with grant money from the Distressed Cemetery Fund. Over time, the group plans to create its own mulch for the cemetery's flower gardens.