

Mr. Kory Schuler is the current Executive Director of the Niagara USA Chamber of Commerce, one of the region's largest business advocacy organizations. The Niagara USA Chamber is the countywide chamber of commerce serving Niagara County in the Buffalo Niagara region of Western New York. He has been in this role for over three years. Prior to his current role he was the Director of Government Affairs for nearly seven years. Kory retired his role as a small business owner for over twenty-five years in 2018, located in an 8000 sq ft building he purchased and renovated.

Kory serves on a number of boards throughout Niagara County and the region including his role as Vice Chairman of the County's Workforce Investment Board. He is also the treasurer of the Niagara Falls International Airport Stakeholders group, part of the County's, Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy Committee, Niagara-Erie Regional Coalition, and helped form the Chamber's new foundation. Kory created Restart Niagara, a committee of stakeholders charged with creating a plan for implementing Federal and State guidelines to guide the reopening of Niagara County. Restart Niagara has grown to become Restart Rethink Reconfigure and consists of business owners, not for profit organizations, and elected officials all working on issues facing Niagara County as it begins to reopen.

Kory is a graduate of the Leadership Niagara Class of 2016 and a committed partner of Leadership Niagara. Kory has consistently been a pillar for progress and stability in the county. As a leader in business advocacy across the region, Kory's leadership and influence continues to grow in Niagara.
