Assistant Director

Applicants should have good personal and communication skills, be curious, playful and inquisitive.

The successful applicant will support our director, cast, stage management and creative team to bring this refreshed version of our 2019 production to a new audience.

Duties will include dramaturgical research, attendance of production and creative team meetings, work with actors on text on a one to one basis as well as support the rehearsal room more generally.

This position is suitable for anyone wanting to experience large ensemble work, interested in how classics might be staged for a contemporary audience and want to be part of a company.

We want our stage and company to reflect our audience so would strongly encourage directors from all backgrounds, particularly those from Black, Asian or Ethnic Minorities and / or from a working class heritage to apply.

Remuneration;

The fee is a final total of £1000. This works out at £80 per day for 12.5 days. (Exact days to be discussed and confirmed prior to first day of rehearsal) all monies will be settled after the receipt of an invoice and within 30 days of the final performance.

For Further information or to apply (please send CV and forwarding letter) please email lazaustheatre@hotmail.co.uk with "Salome Assistant Director" in the subject box.

We look forward to hearing from you.
