NEWS

FROM MISTER TINKER

Hello again everyone,
It's show time again! Where did the summer go? I don't have to remind anyone of the need for HELP at all locations at the SHOW. The office, gate, activities, tractor pulls, horse pulls, field work and all of the other goings on will need help. There will be WORK DAYS every Saturday from now till the Show, so if you want to help, just show up at the grounds. I might remind everyone to get an OFFICIAL show guide, every event and times are listed in the guide.

Till next time

Keep on tinkerin
