ADO'S AIR SPRAY

Welcome to the June edition of the Ipswich Ulysses Branch Newsletter. For those who are relatively new to the Ulysses family we wish a hearty welcome and hope you enjoy a very long stay with us. For those who have been around a little longer, then thanks for staying and making us happy with your company.

I would like to thank all the well wishers who made contact with us personally and on the web for their condolences to the passing of Amanda and Karens mum. Although her passing wasn't altogether unexpected it was still a great loss to the girls, as my mother-in-law was a very caring woman who supported her family strongly in every thing we did. She was very proud of her brood and was interested to hear what everybody was up to. Amanda visited very often to take her on shopping trips or just to give her a day out from the humdrum of residential living. Her mum loved to stop at Maccas on the way home for ice cream. I don't know who enjoyed the treat more, Amanda or her mum. Rest in peace Yvonne McConochie you have earned it.

The big news coming out of our National AGM is that history was created and we now have a female President to guide us into 2014-15. Helena Gritton is in my eyes a very capable and determined woman who has the club at heart and will be an excellent leader for the club. Information on the website can be found by accessing <http://motorbikewriter.com/ulysses-club-elects-first-female-president/>. With a vote of 778 – 270 it was clear that the rank and file members wanted a change of leadership, which has seen the Club, have a female President and a Female Vice President . The National Committee is President: Helena Gritton Vice President: Jen Woods Secretary: Noel Wiltshire Treasurer: Mike Abberfield Committee members: Rob White Henry Rokx

Peter Baulch. So you can see we have a few new faces on the committee for this coming year. On a personal note I would like to thank John Evans, the outgoing Secretary for his great support of me and the branch over the long haul until we made were made a branch officially.

Our Super 66 has now ended and it looks like we will have close to $400 to donate to the Ulysses Memorial Garden fund. A big thank you to those who put their hands into their pockets and bought a number. Some bought more than one number so again a big thank you. We had winners from the branch and outside the branch so we got a chance to spread the love. I would be very interested in whether it would be fortuitous for us to run another when the branch needs funding for another project if required.

The first meeting of the “Ipswich Ride against Domestic and Family Violence” was held on Saturday 17th May. 13 brave souls arrived and many a discussion took place to give us some ideas as to where we can head and to have some goals to aim for in the near future. I thank all the members who have put their hands up to assist the branch to organise this very important ride. However we will need lots more hands on deck when the whips are cracking and I am asking for this branch to get completely behind this project. This is not a whimsey of a minority; this event is going to take a lot of planning and even more workers if it is to be successful. The work has begun and if you are asked to assist, please look at the greater cause and the difference we may be able to make in some one’s life. These statistics are the last from the Bureau of Statistics done in 2005 and just shows how scary the world is out there. Just fewer than half a million Australian women reported that they had experienced physical or sexual violence or sexual assault in the past 12 months. More than a million women had experienced physical or sexual assault by their male current or ex-partner since the age of 15. Most incidences of physical assault against women in the 12 months prior to 2005 were committed in a home (64.1%). 12.4% of women had been sexually abused before the age of 15, compared with 4.5% of men, between 1996 and 2005. 64% of women who experienced physical assault and 81.1% of women who experienced sexual assault still did not report it to police. The majority of violence against men is committed by other men. Of men who reported that they had experienced physical violence in the 12 months before the survey, 73.7% said that the perpetrator was a male.

I take the opportunity to welcome Julz into the fold as our Newsletter Editor. Julz has been hampered by the need for her to travel overseas to participate in her employment. If we could just utilise the newsletter and the website a little more I would be ecstatic. Please send in your snippets no matter how corny or uninteresting you feel they may be because a lot of us get a kick out of reading about other people’s adventures. Our newsletter is also a historical account of the branch for us to look back through as we get older

The branch has a Blanket Run on the 7th June which has been advertised in our newsletters and on the web. I know it is a long weekend and we have a level 1 ride led by Kon the next day, but if we have our shirts by then it sure would be exciting to show them off on the day. There are plenty of Rugby League games on during the day if you would like to stay. Also there is other clubs invited to attend such as the rock and roll group and hot rod owners club. There is free entry to those who carry a Ulysses card or even a helmet into the ground.

Just a short note on Kons ride the next day. Kon has been out and given it a pretty good run over and it is a fairly long ride. He will be giving more information out before the day but is a true level 1 ride. This means that it is recommended for experienced riders only. We have rides for all levels of riders and most of the branch rides cater for every rider.

International Female Ride Day

What a fantastic day this must have been...I have two ride reports from Bev and Marita! Plus I hear that our very own Rizzo won a beautiful leather riding jacket on the day, congrats Rizzo! And thanks Marita and Bev for the fantastic reports...I wish I had made the effort to join you. Oh well, there is always next year, hey gals! – Ed.

Here is Marita's report

7 Lovely Ladies from the Ipswich & Lockyer Ulysses clubs took part in the 8th annual IFRD ride on Saturday, May 3rd. This is a globally synchronized ride day "connecting women with motorcycling". Funds raised from this year's Brisbane ride and the subsequent fundraising ride have been donated to Breast Cancer research.

Kicking off at 7.30am on what I swear was the coldest morning in May EVER we made our way through Brisbane to the Northbound BP at Caboolture where we met up with the rest of the IFRD group. 46 ladies in total participated in this year's ride with the majority coming from Brisbane, Ipswich and the Sunshine Coast. Others however had come from as far west as Warwick and Stanthorpe.

According to the "Official Ride Day Route" the scheduled departure time was 9.15am Sharp. I'm proud to say that WE were ready however no one else was. After photo's, talking and more photo's (yes blokes, you can laugh away) we geared up, eventually getting underway sometime after 10am.

travelling the 23km back to the

The bikes were as diverse as the women that attended ranging from trikes, spiders, go faster's and big cruisers. Yes there was even a scooter (no, it was not mine).

From the BP we headed north along the Brice Highway taking the D'Aguilar Highway exit to Woodford. At Woodford we turned left onto Neurum Rd

D'Aguilar Highway and into Kilcoy.

I hadn't ever ridden that way before and was surprised by the water at the Stanley River crossing. Certainly worth another visit. Once at Kilcoy it was coffee time, more photos and yes more talking.

From Kilcoy we headed to Esk via Somerset Dam. The twists and turns were fun and as always the scenery spectacular. It was at Esk that we bid a sad goodbye to the Rizzo, Amanda, Silvie and Elizabeth. After re-fuelling the group turned onto Esk-Hampton Rd and travelled to the Farmers Arms Hotel for lunch. Even though we were originally scheduled to arrive at 12:15pm, we finally walked in the door sometime after 1:15pm (yes women's timing). The fire was raging and so so warm after the chill of the ride up the mountain. The meals ticked all the box's - reasonable in price, massive in size and delivered quickly. Very well done when you consider that 40 of us all walked in and ordered at the same time.

After lunch the raffles were drawn where both Jay and I were lucky enough to take home prizes. As the group were going to be heading back the same way to Woodford for afternoon tea we decided it was time to head back to Ipswich. So we bid farewell to the other ladies and made our way back to Ipswich via Murphy Creek and Darren Lockyer way. I think I eventually walked in the door at around 4.30pm. It was a long, chilly, day with about 355km added to my odometer. I look forward to next years with more ladies from Ipswich.

And here is Bev's report for the International Female Riders Day!

Jay and I met at Maccas at Brassall to go on this girl's only ride. We had arranged to meet Amanda (Bling), Liz, Silvey, Jenny (Rizzo) and Marita along the way. We were 7 Ulyssians riding together and enjoying each other's company. Jay was leader and I was (yes you guessed it) tail end Charlie. We had to meet up with the rest of the riders at Burpengary, so we went through the suburbs to Strathpine, then joined up with the Bruce H'way. Jay and I knew where we were going, hence the riding positions.

I have to say Jay is one the best ride leaders going. Even though there were only 7 of us on this leg of the ride, there was only once that we got separated and that was by traffic lights, but were quickly reunited at the next set of traffic lights a couple of hundred metres away.

We arrived at our destination with time to spare, so after signing on and buying the obligatory t-shirt, we had time for a coffee and a chat. The organiser got all the girls together and stipulated a few rules and called for corner markers and a tail end Charlie. Guess what job I put my hand up for? Oh you are just too smart – yep TEC. Jay was a corner marker. The reason I offered, I was the only one with a spyder and I know people just love looking at my bike, so I figured if I stay at the back of the pack and go a steady speed it gives them more time to check it out.

(I know, I'm full of it). I think we had about 35 to 40 bikes and I'm sure this number will grow each year as the money raised goes to breast cancer.

Seriously though we had a great ride up the highway, through to Kilcoy along the D'Aguilar Highway where we stopped for a break. From there we continued to Esk via Somerset Dam. I love being TEC, you see so much more of everything. At one part I saw one of the girls go across a double line riding through a bend on a crest on the wrong side of the road. This was her first long ride and I thought it would be her last if she continued to ride so. It was very windy along that road and I found out later she was pushed over to the wrong side by a very strong pocket of wind. Lucky her that there were no vehicles coming the other way.

Amanda and Jenny had left us at Splyard Creek turnoff as Amanda was not feeling too well and Liz and Sylvey left us at Esk as they had other commitments elsewhere, but Marita, Jay and I soldiered on with the rest of them. We replenished our bikes with fuel in Esk and went through to Hampton and on to the Farmers Arms Hotel at Cabarlah for lunch. After a delicious meal and raffles were drawn, we parted company to go home. Most of the riders went back the way we came, but Jay, Marita and I went home through Murphy's Creek and down the highway. Marita left us at Helidon and Jay and I continued on to Ipswich. It was a very nice day and we met a lot of lovely ladies. I'm sure we will be back next year, only I hope it's not so windy.

FRIDAY FUNNY.....Two little mischievous boys are always getting into trouble and their Mum knows if any mischief occurs in their town, the two boys are probably involved. The boys' mother heard that a preacher in town had been successful in disciplining children, so she asked if he would speak with her boys. The preacher agreed, but he asked to see them individually. The mother sent Danny in the morning, with the older boy to see the preacher in the afternoon. The preacher, a huge man with a deep booming voice, sat the younger boy down and asked him sternly, "Do you know where God is, son?"

The boy's mouth dropped open, but he made no response, sitting there wide-eyed with his mouth hanging open. So the preacher repeated the question in an even sterner tone, "Where is God?!"

Again, the boy made no attempt to answer. The preacher raised his voice even more and shook his finger in the boy's face and bellowed, "WHERE IS GOD?!"

*The boy screamed & bolted from the room, ran directly home & dove into his closet, slamming the door behind him. When his older brother found him in the closet, he asked, "What happened?" The younger brother, gasping for breath, replied, "We are in BIG trouble this time!"
"GOD is missing, and they think WE done it!"*

Advice to new riders.....stay focussed!!

Last month I arrived home from Turkey after spending 10 days away assisting with the Commemorations of Anzac Day in Gallipoli, Turkey. I am fortunate to be also assisting next year at the Centenary and will be laying a wreath at Lone Pine on behalf of the Ipswich Ulysses Branch. It is such an honour to be part of the services, and to help them come together in such a special place. We stay in a small town called Cannakale which is on one side of the Dardenelles, and a ferry ride across the water to Anzac Cove, and only 36kms from the famous Troy. Cannakale is a seaside town which houses a lot of University students - very vibrant and busy, small cobbled lanes, tiny stalls, restaurants on the waterfront, chestnut sellers on the streets....Every time we had to go across on the ferry we had Cay (tea) which is served in special little glass tea cups very hot and strong and sweet. It's become a tradition.

Turkey is a pretty special place, this was my third trip there, I travelled with an amazing group of people and while we worked very very hard, we also had a ball together once the work was done! I have eaten so much food it's not funny, and anyone who has been to that part of the world would agree that the food is so different from ours, and so so so yummy! My favourite Turkish foods are Gozleme, which is like a layered savoury pancake, and red lentil soup. Turkish people are very friendly and often quite hilarious. One night we were choosing a restaurant to eat in and we had this chef just about chasing us down the road telling us all the other restaurants were crap and we should eat at his! It's not uncommon for the shop and stall owners to follow you down the road trying to get you to buy their stuff - carpets, jewellery, pashminas, leather. I tried to find a leather bike vest but sadly had no luck...the leather is just beautiful and the prices are pretty good.

We are really fortunate that once the services are over and the packing up is done, we have one free day in Istanbul on our way back to Australia and I spent the day exploring, including the Topkapi Palace and Harem. It's an incredible building - I don't know how they built these ancient palaces and mosques hundreds and hundreds of years ago without machinery, engineers and architects. The original Palace grounds covered 700,000 sq km's but visitors only get to see about 6% of that. Part of the grounds are now a military base and massive tulip garden. It is set on the banks of the Bosphorus and it's so beautiful there - I still find it hard to believe that I have been to the shores of the Bosphorus, the Aegean, crossed the Dardenelles and just down the road from the Black Sea! But the real reason for being there of course was for Anzac Day. When I walk onto Anzac Cove I find it really emotional, just to see the landscape where our diggers landed and fought - no wonder it was a mess. But I have to say that Lone Pine holds a more special place in my heart. Lone Pine is distinctly Australian, and the service that is held there, while still solemn and respectful, is lighter and has a much more Aussie feel to it. On the wall of remembrance is the name of a very young man, Jimmy. Jimmy lied and said he was 18 when he volunteered for the AIF, but he was only 14 and never saw his 15th birthday. Imagine being his Mum, his Dad, his brother or sister. He can't have had any idea what place and horror he was travelling to on his adventure. I've seen the headstone for Simpson (and his donkey who the Turks call Murphy and are absolutely sure he was a Turkish donkey!!). I'll leave you with the words from Ataturk, the founding father of modern Turkey, which always send shivers down my spine... "Those heroes that shed their blood and lost their lives ...You are now lying in the soil of a friendly country. Therefore rest in peace. There is no difference between the Johnnies and the Mehmets to us where they lie side by side here in this country of ours...You, the mothers, who sent their sons from faraway countries wipe away your tears; your sons are now lying in our bosom and are in peace, after having lost their lives on this land they have become our sons as well."

Lone Pine at 3am...we were here overnight and it felt like we were looking after our boys who rest here....

THANKS !

Thanks to the members for coming along for the third Walk a Mile in Her Shoes Event and Remembrance Day Ceremony on Wednesday 7th May 2014. I really appreciate your support. Each year the event is growing in our community. Here is a pic of US and a great pic of some male supporters in Red High Heels. Amanda

So, what is all about....

National Day of Remembrance: Candle Lighting Ceremony

Each year on the first Wednesday of May, members of the general public join with the Ipswich Women's Centre Against Domestic Violence and other DV related organisations to remember and honour those who have lost their lives as a result of Domestic or Family Violence. In 2014, we remembered the 18 Queensland women and children whose lives were lost as a result of domestic or family violence.

Thanks Howza for the Villages ride report below!!

I was looking forward to this ride, as it was only to be a short one, not like my ride of the 8 June (just a little plug for it, check it out on the ride calendar on the website.) Mind you I didn't expect to be leading it, but, as the original leader, Strop, couldn't do it due to health problems, I was volunteered to lead the ride to Lowood and Erik taking over the rest of the way.

I was quite surprised, on arrival at Yamanto, of the sheer number of participants, well over 20 bikes, plus Bev's Can Am and a souped up trike. Now I might not like leading rides, but I hate giving the pre ride briefing. Somebody needs to come up with a spiel we can use for all occasions. That would make it easier, but I guess it's a dream too far...

So with Windsucker as Tail end charlie in tow, we made it to Lowood without any problems as far as I thought, travelling over some well known roads, to me at least. It was good to hear that some riders hadn't been over those roads before...

Janeen (Bundymum) had trouble with the exhaust system of her Hyosung. We had lots of willing helpers to try to get the machine going, but to avail, it was a trailer rescue for this baby. (Sheriff take note)

Erik was going to lead the group to Atkinson Dam, but a young, very young guy (you know who you are) knew the way and lead us to the next destination.. I ended up being corner marker half way along, waiting for the TEC to arrive, and waited and waited. Rode to the dam, just to check if I had missed Windsucker riding by, but no luck. So rode back the way we came, no sign of anyone. After advising Erik, I rode straight to the BBQ at Gatton. So what happened to Tail end Charlie? (Sheriff take note, lol?)

Once again the BBQ trailer has shown it's worth, with no shortage of cooks and helpers, bringing a great ride to an end, surrounded by like-minded riders. Only it wasn't the end, the group decided to have a final drink, cake or ice cream in Laidley. Grey Wolf ended up with more grey hairs as Ado took him back to Gatton as pillion, to recover a lost wallet. Lucky it was still there!

Thanks to all who took part.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT....

The further back we look the more we can see into the future and plan. Look at what started this great club: A need for older motorcyclists to continue their love of riding.

The Benefits: Adventure, friendship and food for the mind and an ageing body.

Why it works: Simplicity, respect, limited rules. The club, like life, is simple – we complicate it.

So don't over think things, enjoy your now, sure plan for the future, but don't wreck your past, you worked bloody hard for it

Thanks for the.....ROADVALE RIDE REPORT FROM STROP (ps....HE BOUGHT A HARLEY....)

This was Tracy's first ride with Ipswich Branch & a first on our new bike☺. Yes I bought a Harley ☺ It was a chilly start for us & left Lowood at 7 so we could have a coffee first.

Come 9am, with Spook as our Ride Leader & Ado as Tail end Charlie, 17 bikes & 20 members headed off with our first stop at Beaudesert for morning tea. As this was my first real ride on the Harley, I was very happy with it & the way it handled. To me it handled the bends & corners better than my previous bike. After a drink, food, wee & smoke for those who do☺, we headed off again.

You will have to ask Spook the way went as it was all new to me, but was a great ride, great views & well, great road, except for the DIRT ☹ Fancy taking me on a dirt road on my new bike, I think that if we are lead over a dirt road, Ride Leader should wash our bikes ☺.

We had a short stop, where I had a little mishap☹ Due to the weight of the bike (am getting used to it ☺) some loose stone & slightly sloped , I lost balance & because of having Tracy on the back, (no she is not heavy ☺) I could not hold it up & I gently laid it down. Tracy hurt her foot, but is fine now. As it was a Harley, no damaged done to the bike except a slight mark on the crash bar. A BIG THANK YOU to DAZ ZA for helping me right the bike. Only real damage was to my pride & waiting for the Sheriff at the next meeting ☺

The rest of the ride to the Roadvale pub was great, except for a slight wait at Boonah for some riders as Rizzo had a slight issue with her bike ☺ Once at the pub, we all ordered a meal, we were a bit disappointed with the $10 meal, but the full meals that people ordered looked great. While we were there, a HOG chapter turned up also. No, I did not join them but stayed with my friends ☺

We said our goodbyes at the pub as we turned off at Cunningham Highway to head home.

Overall it was a great ride with some great friends. Tracy was not very sore from the ride due to the lounge chair she was sitting in. I am getting use to all the buttons on the bike, but am enjoying the comfort.

Once again, thanks Spook for a great ride & to everyone else who was there

Lumberjacks Road Rash

Hi folks,

I'm taking over from Lindsay who did a great job as ride coordinator.

Hopefully I will be able to keep the high standard.

There are a couple of changes that I would like to try.

Firstly, I would like to make some of the rides shorter, which means more time to socialize and relaxing. Maybe one in three or one in four rides.

Secondly, on the longer rides, I will try to have the lunch stop closer to home, maybe two third or three quarter through the ride.

I believe that most of you don't feel like a long ride home after having consumed a one kilo steak and 5 beers (or cola)

Of course, if any of you want something different, you are welcome to make or suggest a ride the way you want it.

We are always looking for people who will lead a ride so don't be shy. Come and see me.

Ipswich branch rides:

- 01/06/2014 @ 9 a.m. – Burgers R us That ride should be done and dusted by the time you read this.
- 08/06/2014 @ 8:30 a.m. – Kyogle ride. (Ride of interest) This one is a long ride (335 km) leaving from Yamanto with Howza as ride leader.
- 15/06/2014 @ 9 a.m. - Beachmont Café ride. An easy slow ride with a few curves and nice view. Ado will show us the way on this ride.
- 21/06/2014 @ 1 p.m. – Interbranch Cartwheel Ride. We leave from Yamanto for a short ride to Aratula Hotel Where there is Raffles, music and good company.

See you all on the rides and ride safe.

Erik (Lumberjack)

Threads for the web

Website or Web site:

A set of interconnected webpages, usually including a homepage, generally located on the same server, and prepared and maintained as a collection of information by a person, group, or organization.

On a blog posted on the 30th of April, I advised against the use of Internet Explorer as browser. Since then, Microsoft released an update to counter that vulnerability, even fixing it for Windows XP.

Of course, the end of XP being updated is well and truly here, so if you've gone back to using IE, be aware that threats will keep coming, rendering IE vulnerable to attack.

Quite a few browsers are available for free on the internet, Firefox, Chrome, Safari and more...

Oh, and keep checking the website, changes are ongoing, Please advise if you find errors or have an idea of something you would like to see on the site.
