From the Pastor's Desk

But he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." Therefore I will boast all the more gladly about my weaknesses, so that Christ's power may rest on me. That is why, for Christ's sake, I delight in weaknesses, in insults, in hardships, in persecutions, in difficulties. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

2 Corinthians 12:9-10 NIV

Greetings of Grace and Peace!

Fall is here! The trees' leaves are beginning to lose their chlorophyll and hidden pigments of orange and yellow are coming forward. As the colors come forth, we are blessed with a gorgeous cascade of fall foliage. I love to see the beauty of the colored leaves. They can turn the humdrum driving of the highway into a pleasant adventure. The leaves, as we walk in the neighborhood, call our attention away from mindless chatter and worries to the beauty the leaves offer. Fall foliage is a splendid gift.

This year, perhaps because I am in the fall of my life, has me thinking about the beauty that lies hidden within so many of us. We create masks or personalities we want others to see and believe about ourselves, much like the chlorophyll. We are fearful if others truly knew what we are like, the thoughts we have, they wouldn't like us. We cover ourselves with chlorophyll and try hard to keep the colorful side of ourselves hidden. The truth is that we are all more alike than we know or want to admit.

In a recent church small group conversation, we reflected on the honesty and integrity that is shared within AA groups. It creates community because folks can resonate with one another and be vulnerable. There is a trust and a truthfulness that we are all broken and in need of grace. It seems to me that is what the Bible is calling us to. Paul, in the above reference scripture, is certainly writing about his weaknesses and that in Christ we are made strong (and I add "beautiful" as the fall foliage). As we seek to build a deeper community within our church, I hope you will join a small group: a Bible study, Spirit Chat, men or women's group, etc. and become vulnerable and honest so God can continue to help you grow into the beautiful human you were created to be.

Questions for reflection:

What "chlorophyll" or old lie are you holding onto that you need to let go of?

What is a hidden desire that you have longed to do, but have told yourself you could never accomplish that?

Who are two or three other people in the church community you could be honest and truthful with and begin a small group?

I look forward to seeing what beauty God will reveal in each of us as we journey together.

In Christ's Light and Love,

Thank You

Thank you for your prayers, cards, and support for my family in the death of my mother, Marjorie Miller., on August 26th. It is a blessing to know one is being held by so many at such a difficult time.

Welcoming

The Federated Community Church sure knows how to throw a party! What a wonderful welcome for me and my family on August 26th. The food was bountiful and delicious, the fellowship was fun and friendly, the music upbeat and enjoyable, and the weather superb. It made my heart overflow with warmth and love to know all the time, energy, and expense given to welcome us to the church and community.

I have been awed by the gifts of welcome since the very beginning: Folks giving of their time to physically move furniture and boxes: (oh, the boxes!!) , others to watch my grandchildren and provide entertaining toys and food especially for them, meals ready for our family to eat, help unpacking, and more. We are extremely grateful for all that has been done to make us feel welcome and supported. We are happy to be among you. I feel very blessed to be appointed to FCC in Hampden. While all churches have struggles (after all, we are human), I feel the Spirit moving among us and I am excited to move into the future with you.

When I received word from the District Superintendent that the Bishop had appointed me to FCC, the words from Jeremiah 29:11 came to me: For I know the plans I have for you, declares the LORD, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. These words seem even more prevalent now that I am with you. I feel very, very blessed and am excited to see those plans for FCC as we journey together.

—Pastor Pat

From the Deacons' Bench

Pastor Pat had a lovely Sunday message in September about our Christian Calling as servants in the world. The New Testament reading that day (Mark 9:35) records Jesus as saying "If anyone wants to be first, he must be the very last, and the servant of all". Reading on, he picks up a child as a symbol of the frail amongst us and says "Whoever welcomes one of these little children in my name welcomes me; and whoever welcomes me.....welcomes.....the one who sent me."

I love our Sunday Sanctuary as a place for repair, refuge, spiritual refreshment, reconciliation and for reflections on renewed commitments. There are other sanctuaries too. Recently, we learn of Sanctuary Cities for the revitalization of modern day wayfarers..... or our Sanctuary Home where every day can become a mission of service. I've heard folks proclaim a better understanding of God and the Divine Spirit that resides within each of us through their service roles as parents and care givers.

How about a Wildlife Sanctuary? I visit one most every day and even there we can be reminded of our Calling. Earlier this summer when the goslings began to fill out, I noticed a Canada goose nearly full size then, had a broken left wing.....the feathers stuck out and the wing was distorted. The injured one seemed alone and remote from the rest of the pack. Geese like people are communal and this could be a problem when the weather gets cold and their fly-aways occur. This goose wouldn't be able to fly with the others. Well, the story is still unfolding, but recently the disabled one has joined a community of mallards. Mallards winter over here in waters that don't freeze so perhaps there is a happy ending for this tale and possibly a reminder too that even in this Sanctuary the Call goes out to those with missing feathers and undeveloped wings.

Mother Theresa wrote as a closing line in one of her poems "The fruit of Service is Peace."

Wishing all the Blessings of Peace,
Dave Spencer, Deacon.

Building Community in Christ

Our fall stewardship pledging program will soon be underway, with letters, articles, posters, and speakers—all encouraging us to generously share the goodness we have received with others who are in need of God’s love throughout the world.

Our theme this year will be focused on how we, individually and together, can share God’s love—here, there, and everywhere, in order to build the community of Christ—in our own church, our town, our nation and our world.

Commitment Sunday, this year, will happen on November 18th, Thanksgiving Sunday. Following our service of commitment, we will all have the opportunity to share in our traditional delicious turkey soup lunch prepared and served up by our beloved Joyce Libby and “associates”.

This will be a wonderful day of both giving and receiving for all—just as God gives such wonderful blessings to us and we gratefully receive those blessings.

We hope to see you all at this very special day of praise and promise and togetherness!

Walking with you in Community,

Your Stewardship Ministry Team

Christian Education

We have had a great start to the new year in Sunday School. We are very excited to see all the children return.

This year our focus is on Community and what it means, with lessons from the bible. We started out with Proverbs 17:17 "A friend loves at all times and a brother is born for adversity". Our discussions lead to what a friend is and how we can be a friend to everyone. The Sunday School will be working with how we can be better friends in our Community.

We are looking for Sunday School helpers to assist with the children. No experience necessary, just a love for having fun!

Blessings,
Kristi & Laurie

Parents, Grandparents, Guardians

Just a reminder to please pick up your child/children from Sunday school classrooms immediately after service so we all can enjoy fellowship together.

Announcements

October 7th is World Communion Sunday-

All over the world Christians will celebrate Holy Communion. It is wonderful to think about the greatness of the Lord's Table and how many people are at the table. We invite you to bring bread to adorn the altar for October 7th worship service (please bring breads in by 9:45 AM so that they can be placed on the altar) The breads can represent your ethnicity (Portuguese sweet bread, Irish soda bread, Syrian pita bread, American apple or banana, etc.) or they can simple be your favorite baked good. (Cookies or other baked products are welcome.) They will be a visual reminder of our connection to others all over the world. Following the service, the breads will be auctioned off during coffee hour. Monies raise will be split between the FCC Missions Committee and the UMC World Communion Special Sunday which provides an Ethnic Scholarship Program and the Ethnic In-Service Training Program, administered by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry. Hope you will join us as we have some fun, share some good bread, and make a difference in the life of another.

Advent Booklet

It is Pastor Pat's hope that the community of FCC will create their own Advent booklet, similar to the Upper Room Daily Devotional to be shared by the entire church during this time. The reflections can take many forms. They can be a poem or be short s reflection on a time when you were touched by God or saw God working through another person. It can be a time in nature which took your breath away or about someone who made a difference in your life. If you are comfortable finding a supportive scripture and adding a prayer, that is fine. If you only want to submit the short reflection (no more than a half typed page), Pastor Pat will add scripture and a prayer. The booklet becomes our gift to one another. Please submit by November 11, 2018 (in time for Advent) to:

FCC.PastorPat@gmail.com (preferred method) or leave in church office marked, "Advent Booklet."

Poetry Corner

On the kitchen wall of Saint Benedict's Monastery

I was regretting the past and fearing the future. Suddenly God was speaking, "My name is 'I AM'." I waited. God continued, "When you live in the past, with its mistakes and regrets, it is hard. I am not there. My name is not 'I was'. When you live in the future, as I'm not there, My name is not 'I will be'. When you live in the moment, it is not hard. I am here. My name is 'I AM'."

Embrace the Day

"For to be free is not merely to cast off one's chains, but to live in a way that respects and enhances the freedom of others."

~Nelson Mandela

May God grant you always...

A sunbeam to warm you,

A moonshine to charm you,

A sheltering angel

So nothing can harm you...

Laughter to cheer you,

Faithful friends near you,

And whenever you pray,

Heaven to hear you.
