

Joseph Modica is currently Visiting Assistant Professor of Music at the University of Redlands, and Director of Pastoral Music at the Church of the Blessed Sacrament in Hollywood, CA where he conducts three choirs and oversees an active music program. He has served on the faculties of the University of South Carolina and Chapman University, where he taught both undergraduate and graduate courses in conducting and choral methods, and conducted both select and non-auditioned choirs. He has held adjunct teaching positions at Biola University and Chapman University.

Dr. Modica has also taught high school for over a decade. His choirs consistently received superior ratings at festivals and competitions. Dr. Modica is the Conductor of the Festival Choir at the Idyllwild Summer Arts Camp where he recently conducted Bach's Magnificat, Bernstein's Chichester Psalms, Carmina Burana by Carl Orff, and Dona Nobis Pacem by Vaughan Williams at the Walt Disney Concert Hall in Los Angeles.

Dr. Modica earned his Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Choral Music from the University of Southern California. Dr. Modica has served as a clinician and adjudicator throughout the United States. Dr. Modica is also vocal arranger and conductor of "Your Generation in Concert", a multi-media production featuring a seven member rock band, orchestra, and chorus.

Choirs under Dr. Modica's direction have toured in Italy, Australia, Hawaii, New York, Washington D.C., Washington and Oregon, Florida, and the Bahamas. His choirs have sung High Mass at Basilica San Marco in Venice and Basilica San Pietro in Rome, and have been fortunate enough to sing for Pope John Paul II and Pope Benedict XVI.

PETER TIBORIS founded MidAmerica Productions, Inc., in 1984 with its first concert on January 7, 1984. This also served as his New York debut, conducting the American Symphony Orchestra and the Louisiana Choir in Rossini's Stabat Mater and two contemporary works by Dinos Constantinides. As an independent producer of classical concerts, MidAmerica presents soloists and choral and instrumental organizations from around the world in New York's Carnegie Hall, Weill Recital Hall at Carnegie Hall, Alice Tully Hall at Lincoln Center, and Lincoln Center's Avery Fisher Hall. In addition to its New York concert series MidAmerica Productions has presented in Greece, Austria, USSR/Russia, Bulgaria, the United Kingdom, Italy, and the Czech Republic.

In a quarter-century, MidAmerica Productions has presented some 900 concerts, of which over 400 have been in Carnegie Hall. Our purpose is to highlight the appearance of distinguished ensembles, and provide them with the opportunity to work with world-renowned conductors and composers.
