RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. All exhibitors over 16 must purchase a membership. Membership will be paid upon purchase of a gate admission wristband and paid entry fees to the show. Upon presentation of a properly worn wristband a membership number will be issued and exhibitor numbers with envelope containing receipt and list of classes entered will be given. While juniors and other adults involved with the exhibitor do not need to purchase a membership, they must pay regular gate admission if entering the grounds during the fair.
2. Wristbands need to be purchased along with entry fees. Please ensure that all family/friends that are with you have also purchased wristbands as the directors do have authority to ask them to leave the grounds until a bracelet is purchased. Wristbands for family/friends will also be available at the gate.
3. Entry fees and prize monies shall be stated in show schedule. Entry fees are $3.00 per class unless stated otherwise.
4. The directors reserve the right to pay prizes as shown in this prize list on a percentage basis in the event that the revenue of the society is not sufficient to enable the prizes to be paid in full. Alternatively, should the fair receipts warrant, the society may increase prize monies as the directors see fit.
5. Should there be only one exhibitor in any class, the judge is to use his or her own discretion as to awarding of a prize. The society reserves the right to double up the classes in which there is only one exhibitor or to pay out only 50% of the prize monies.

14. Stalls will be allotted as directors see fit. Name tags will be placed on stalls by 8:00 p.m. Wednesday night. No horses shall be on grounds prior to this without consent of directors. Please do not mark your own stalls early in the week prior to fair.

23. No person will be allowed to interfere with the judges while in the discharge of their duties. Should any exhibitor so interfere, he or she will forfeit all claims to any prize to which they may be entitled.
24. When exhibitors are not satisfied with the ruling of the judge, a protest in writing must be signed and handed to the secretary before the close of the fair accompanied by a deposit of $5.00 of which sum will be forfeited to the society if said protest is not sustained.
25. All exhibitors and competitors should be neatly and appropriately dressed before entering the show ring. Correct numbers must be worn at all times in the ring. Exhibitors will be warned once for non-compliance, further infractions can result in elimination from class at the judge's discretion and no prize monies awarded.

27. All amounts or articles offered as special prizes must pass through the hands of the secretary and be offered up in fair and open competition.
28. While directors will take every precaution possible to ensure the safety of the articles placed of exhibition, the owners must take upon themselves the whole risk should any article or animal be injured, lost or stolen. While the directors will give every assistance in their power to the restoration thereof, they are not liable to may payment for the value of any articles or animals.
29. The Gilbert Plains/Grandview Agricultural Society is not by law responsible to anyone, exhibitor or spectator, for any loss, damage, or injury that may occur to a person by any animal or article or things on the premises of the fair. The directors will, of course, take reasonable precaution to protect all persons and property of the premises.
