

Since 1969 TJ Brown has been entertaining audiences from High School Rock Bands to over 20 Years with top local Country Bands.

As a soloist since 2009, I can be found performing at local establishments throughout Long Island including North Fork Vineyards such as Pindar, Ospreys Dominion, Jasons , Clovis Point and various private events.

Covering a diverse selection from the 60s to present, a performance can be customized to your venue for a lively or intimate experience

Short Demos as well as a calendar of my scheduled performances can be found on my website

Bringing passion and new life into the songs that have been part of my song line for nearly half a century.

Interacting with live audiences has always fueled my performance and I look forward to sharing our experiences
