Greenhouse Vision

To become the leader of therapeutic intervention for children with developmental challenges, provide hope to their families, and create a better Oklahoma where the neurodivergent can thrive.

The First Swing

Some of the Greenhouse staff had the honor (and fun!) of putting a few holes in the wall as we began work to remodel our new space. We learned that we like what we do, and we're oh so glad the work is being done by real professionals. :)

We have so much excitement to share with you in the coming weeks! Check out page 2 for a peek of where the new facility started and where it is headed.

New Facility Before & After Shots

We are LOVING watching the new clinic site take shape. Nearly everything is new, top to bottom. It's getting close! A big shoutout to Hill Construction for doing a beautiful job.

Top Row: Before of welcome lobby and beyond. We wouldn't want you getting dizzy stepping inside, so we changed the checkerboard tile to a beautiful gray flooring.
 Middle Row: A few of our fun doors to the treatment rooms! What other colors do you think you might find?
 Bottom Row: A look down the hallway. Center picture is the therapist office space during demo, and the right picture is after. Amazing!

Kids Melting Down During the Holidays

Do not mean ...

- "I'm defiant and refuse to listen"
- "I need to learn a lesson"
- "I'm trying to embarrass you"
- "You are a bad parent"
- "I am a bad child"
- "You must meet my demands"
- "I hate you"

May mean ...

- "I'm overstimulated & need a break"
- "I need you to take me to a safe space to let these feelings out"
- "I love you and feel safe with you"
- "I'm hungry, tired, or bored"
- "There's a lot of new people & I'm feeling overwhelmed"
- "I need you to be my calm right now"

If you need specific tips, please reach out to your therapist. We're here for you.

A Very Merry Christmas to our communities!

We are blessed to be part of your lives.

Your Friends at Greenhouse

Greenhouse CEO/ President Kassie Allison, MOT, OTR/L, was honored to be a special guest on a second episode of the Educate to Advocate podcast, this round speaking on

DIRFloortime : What is it, and Why is building foundational development a priority?

We are so proud to share it with you!

Please pass it on!
