

Free Trees!

*A*ce Hardware was once again the place for the community to celebrate Earth Day in April. As part of a long-standing tradition, Ace and our district purchased 1500 tree seedlings to distribute to local residents. The Junior Conservation Board was on hand to greet folks and answer questions.

There was a tremendous response from the community, in spite of the spitting snow, and we appreciate all who braved the weather to plant trees!

