

Joseph's Dreams

Genesis Chapter 37

Jacob loved Joseph more than all his sons, because he was a son of old age to him. He made a coat of many colors for him. His brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, and they hated him.

Joseph dreamed a dream, and told it to his brothers. They hated him even more. He said to them, "Now hear this dream which I have dreamed: We were binding sheaves in the middle of the field and my sheaf rose up and also stood up. Your sheaves came around and bowed themselves to my sheaf."

His brothers said to him, "Shall you reign over us, or shall you really rule over us?" They hated him even more because of his dreams, and because of his words. He dreamed another dream, and told it to his brothers. The sun and the moon and the eleven stars were bowing themselves to me.

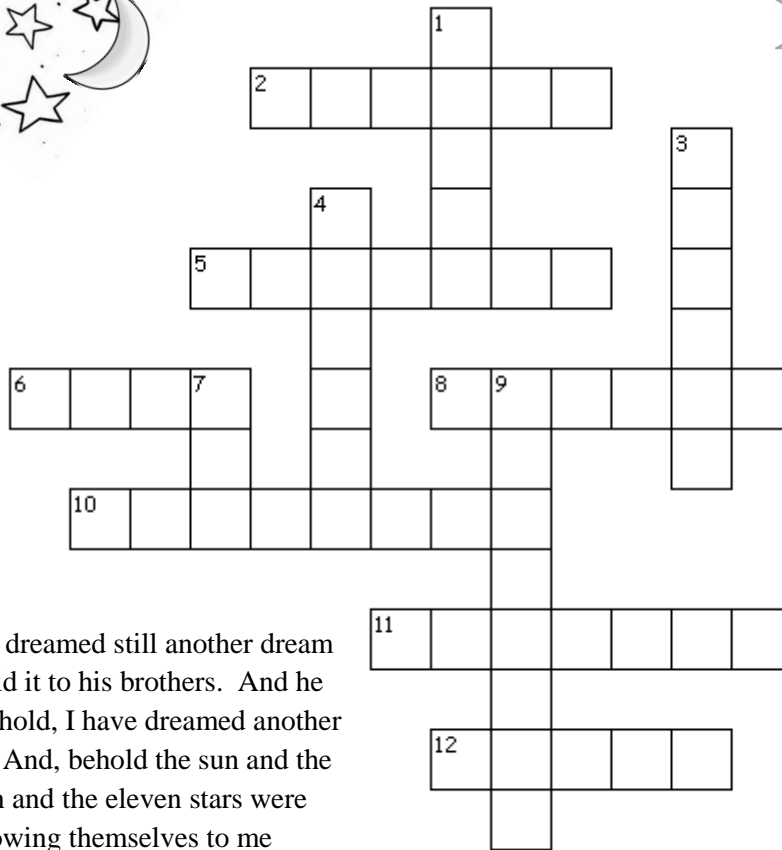

He told it to his father, and to his brothers. His father scolded him, and said, "What is this dream which you have dreamed? Shall we bow ourselves to the earth to you, I, your mother, and your brothers?"

His brothers envied him, but his father listened.
