- Psalm 27
- 2 Thessalonians 1

Saturday, September 5,

- Isaiah 17, 18
- Psalm 28
- 2 Thessalonians 2

"If, 'your Father knows what you need'; then what's the good of prayer? . . . We must remember that there is a difference between God's order and God's permissive will. God's order reveals his character; His permissive will applies to what he permits. [Prayer helps us to move out of the realm of his *permissive will and into that of his intended order]" (Oswald Chambers, If You Shall Ask, [Discovery House, 2000] 608.)*

Saturday, September 12

- Isaiah 31, 32
- Psalm 35
- John 4:1-26

"For instance, it is God's order that there should be no sin, no suffering, no sickness, no limitation and no death; His permissive will is that there should be all these things. To be children of God, according to the New Testament, does not mean that we are creatures of God only, but that we grow into a likeness to God by our own moral character." (Chambers, If You Shall Ask, 608.)

- John 6:60-71

Saturday, September 19

- Isaiah 45, 46
- Psalm 42
- John 7:1-24

"The New Testament view of a Christian is that he is one in whom the Son of God has been revealed, and prayer deals with the nourishment of that life. One way it is nourished is by refusing to worry over anything, for worry means there is something over which we cannot have our own way and is, in reality, personal irritation with God." (Chambers, If You Shall Ask, 609.)

- Psalm 48
- John 10:1-21

Saturday, September 26

- Isaiah 59, 60
- Psalm 49
- John 10:22-42

'In everything give thanks.' Never let anything push you to your wits' end, because you will get worried, and worry makes you self-interested and disturbs the nourishment of the life of God. Give thanks to God that He is there, no matter what is happening." (Chambers, If You Shall Ask, 609.)
