To You, God's Beloved!

Autumn 2014

"The beloved of the LORD shall dwell in safety by Him,
Who shelters him/her
all the day long;
And he/she shall dwell, rest, tabernacle between His shoulders."
Deuteronomy 33:12

"Keep close watch over me as the apple of Your eye; shelter me in the shadow of Your wings." Psalm 17:8 The Voice

Psalm 84:6-8 When they walk through the Valley of Weeping, it will become a place of refreshing springs. The autumn rains will clothe it with blessings. (NLT) They go from strength to strength [increasing in victorious power]; each of them appears before God in Zion. (AMP)

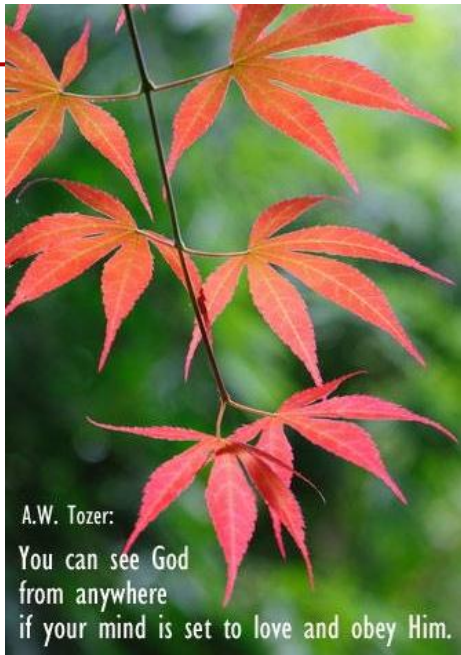

And how blessed all those in whom you live, whose lives become roads you travel; they wind through lonesome valleys, come upon brooks, discover cool springs and pools brimming with rain! God-traveled, these roads curve up the mountain, and at the last turn—Zion! God in full view!

God-of-the-Angel-Armies, listen: O God of Jacob, open your ears—I'm praying! Look at our shields, glistening in the sun, our faces, shining with your gracious anointing. MSG

Do not be grieved, for the joy of the Lord is your strength."
Nehemiah 8:10

With October coming to a close, and November within sight, it is with great joy that we thank God for you, and ask for His generous bounty upon you and your families, in Jesus name, Amen!

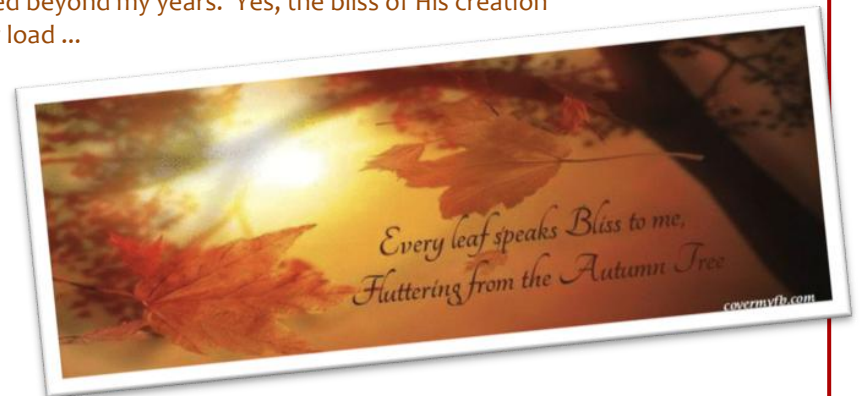

The breathtaking beauty of this season reminds me of all the encouragement I have received from our Lord Jesus, through you! The love, prayers and support you have sent for the sake of my dear father ... you are literally holding up both my arms in prayer and service. Dad is now home and doing well with "in home care." As he progresses, orders will be written for "out-patient care." (More on page 4 of this newsletter).

Being so pressed for time to do everything, the warm Autumn days, kissed with a sweet warm breeze give me such a lift of praise and worship at a time when I am stretched beyond my years. Yes, the bliss of His creation lightens my load ...

Then Elisha prayed,
"O Lord,
open his eyes and let him see!" The Lord opened the young man's eyes, and when he looked up, he saw that the hillside around Elisha was filled with horses and chariots of fire. Yes! \o/

Romans 12:11 Never be lacking in zeal, but keep your spiritual fervour, serving the Lord. New International Version - UK (NIVUK) Do not slack in your faithfulness and hard work. Let your spirit be on fire, bubbling up and boiling over, as you serve the Lord. The Voice

Never lag in zeal and in earnest endeavor; be aglow and burning with the Spirit, serving the Lord. AMP

Never be lazy, but work hard and serve the Lord enthusiastically. Footnotes: 12:11 Or, but serve the Lord with a zealous spirit; or but let the Spirit excite you as you serve the Lord. NLT

Romans 12:11-13 Don't burn out; keep yourselves fueled and aflame. Be alert servants of the Master, cheerfully expectant. Don't quit in hard times; pray all the harder. Help needy Christians; be inventive in hospitality. MSG

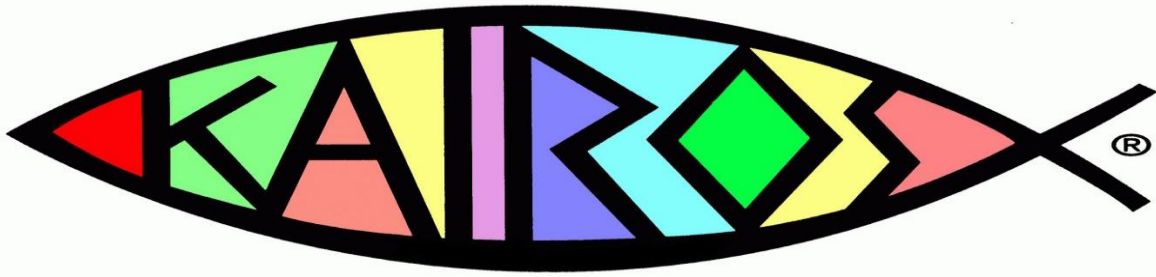

Andrew is going to be a GrandFather! Babies bring new life and rejoicing!

Thank you for your prayers for Andrew and his daughter Tiffany - they are back in touch! And he's going back home to live with Tiffany as she will be presenting him his first grandchild next year. Andrew is so excited; he's telling everyone! He is moving back home, Port Townsend, WA, to start a new life with Tiffany, her fiancé, and his new grandbaby. He's been saving his money to make the trip. With plans to get a haircut and a shave, he's even buying new clothes at Walmart. Giving glory to God, He told me that ever since the day Jesus told me to "break the curses" off of him (the Sword of the Lord manifested Isaiah 27:1), he's been doing better & better. Thank You Father God for bringing Andrew a brand new start! His 5 year season of homelessness and distress is coming to an end! Hey!

[Remember Mudd? He's the man who helps Andrew set up for the day, and find a place to sleep at night. To my surprise, he remembered me, and introduced his friend Tim to me. I went to the car and got 2 more bags of supplies, and the first thing Tim said, "Socks!" He couldn't say "thank you" enough, taking them out of the bag and putting them on right then and there! So, I laid hands on both of them, with Andrew in agreement, and we prayed for His grace, thanking Him again for you - the best team ever, blessing these dear souls "first in the natural and then in the spiritual."]

God's Special Time

Only one other time have I known this (1998) ... I am sensing "Kairos" time. "...to save many people alive..." (See Genesis 50:20*)

Kairos (καιρός) An ancient Greek word meaning the right or opportune moment (the supreme moment). Kairos is the time when God acts. The ancient Greeks had two words for time, chronos and kairos. While the former refers to chronological or sequential time, the latter signifies a time lapse, a moment of indeterminate time in which everything happens.

Matthew 11:25 ... "At that time (G2540 καιρός) Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes."

"Providence is the faith that nothing can prevent us from fulfilling the ultimate meaning of our existence Providence means that there is a creative and saving possibility implied in every situation, which cannot be destroyed by any event." Paul Tillich

*Genesis 50:20 "But as for you, you meant evil against me; but God meant it for good, in order to bring it about as it is this day, to save many people alive." NKJ

Lexicon :: Strong's G2540 - kairos καιρός <http://www.blueletterbible.org/lang/lexicon/lexicon.cfm?Strong's=G2540&t=KJV>

Providence, noun [Latin providentia.] 1. The act of providing or preparing for future use or application. 2. Foresight; timely care; particularly, active foresight, or foresight accompanied with the procurement of what is necessary for future use, or with suitable preparation. How many of the troubles and perplexities of life proceed from want of providence! 3. In theology, the care and superintendence which God exercises over his creatures. He that acknowledges a creation and denies a providence involves himself in a palpable contradiction; for the same power which caused a thing to exist is necessary to continue its existence. Some persons admit a general providence but deny a particular providence not considering that a general providence consists of particulars. A belief in divine providence is a source of great consolation to good men. By divine providence is often understood God himself. 4. Prudence in the management of one's concerns or in private economy. <http://webstersdictionary1828.com>

As I've shared with you in the past, since before the beginnings of NIWM, God gave vision for a "ministry house" ... a welcoming place for the lost, the forsaken, the prodigal, homeless, poor, etc. A kitchen/pantry, clothes closet, community garden, counseling offices + new home for the "Upper Room" prayer center. Is this the "Kairos" ministry house for NIWM to serve the Isaiah 61 & 54 Population?

"Go back to your homes, and prepare a feast. Bring out the best food and drink you have, and welcome all to your table, especially those who have nothing. This day is special. It is sacred to our Lord. Do not grieve over your past mistakes. Let the Eternal's own joy be your protection!" Nehemiah 8:10 The Voice

Prayer & Praise!

Whoo Hoo! Dad's back home!

Phase 1 - September 12th he had a bad fall (nothing broken), but he did have a heart attack + brain bleed which kept him in ICU for 3 days. The heart attack and brain bleed require opposite treatments which could have triggered a stroke, or death; and Dad did not want anything invasive done. So ...

Phase 2 - September 15th, too weak to even sit up and eat, he was taken by ambulance to Vasona Creek Rehab where Doug, my wonderful son-in-law, is the Director of Rehab. First thing he did, was to evaluate him. He got Dad out of bed, walked him about 15 feet, helped him back in bed, and from there, he put together an amazing team to help Dad gain his strength back.

During this time, we met 2 men, Dad's roomie Jack, & Lee, a new resident down the hall, both of them well aware that they miraculously survived severe motorcycle accidents. I was blessed to tell them both about Jesus and His plan for their lives. Although Lee had no faith of his own, they both accepted prayer. |o/

Phase 3 (in home care) – Dad's been in this phase for about a month now. He has progressed so quickly that he no longer needs Felicia, the "home health aide." He loves seeing the chiropractor 2X a week. Amy, the OT (2X a week) is still working on "good judgment" and balance; Joy, the PT (3X a week), is also working on his balance, and strength. Krystina RN, once a week. He's approaching Phase 4 (outpatient care) in hopes that he can gain independence again. Until that happens, I'll continue to live with Dad full-time.

As of today, October 26th ... he gets himself ready each a.m., makes his bed and gets his own breakfast. He's very compliant for Amy & Joy, working hard to accomplish each task. He wants to take his walk by himself, but after he tried to take off without his walker (cane only), it was clear that he hasn't got the "good judgment" thing down yet (one of the requirements for independent living). Along with balance and strength, good judgment is now the greatest need. I just now (October 26th) took this pic of him in his favourite chair ... he says "Thank you!"

P.S. My brother John took a week off work to stay with Dad so that I could go home for a week and do "catch-up." (With God ordained helpers, I got a month's worth of work done in a week!) However, my brother's back needs healing from sleeping in a different bed other than his own. His back is out. ☹ Please pray God heals it so he doesn't have to have surgery on it. I tried to get him to go to my chiropractor but he said his surgeon doesn't want anyone else working on him. Knowing Jesus provides "grace upon grace," Jesus is more than able to heal John, and to lead every step of the way. TU!

Happy Thanksgiving ~ As October nears her end, and we welcome November, may a spirit of gratefulness overtake and consume you, and your family with exponential blessings of love, mercy, peace, and grace upon grace, in Jesus name, Amen!
