

Frances L. Johnson is the Founder and Senior Pastor of Heavenly Sent Christian Ministries, Renton, Washington.

Pastor Frances was ordained as an evangelist in 1991 and, in 1994, accepted the call to the pastorate. She was confirmed by her pastor, the late Prophetess Mattie J. Bass of the Seed of Abraham Pentecostal Church, Renton, WA.

As a powerful minister of the gospel, Pastor Frances preaches and teaches the Word of God without compromise, and as a prophet, she operates in the gifts of the Spirit as the Lord leads. In addition, Pastor Frances has been a speaker for numerous conferences and retreats, such as Women Aglow International, Rock Foundation Women's ministry, and the Seed of Abraham Pentecostal Church.

Internationally, Pastor Frances has ministered in the Philippines, sponsoring several women's conferences throughout Bulacan, Manila, Pampanga, Quezon City, and the village of Aurora, located in the countryside. She counted it a blessing to preach the gospel to those in prison and on the street. Because of her passion and love for the Filipino nation, she has gained several spiritual sons and daughters.

Pastor Frances' mission is to challenge and motivate the Body of Christ to persevere through life trials and strive for maturity in Christ Jesus. She believes everyone can be set free from the bondages in life as she was. Her life verse is "Whom the son sets free is free indeed, John 8:36."

Six years ago, she retired as an executive administrator from The Boeing Company with 32 years of service. In April of 2019, Frances Johnson became a volunteer chaplain, where she serves the Police and Fire Department of the City of Renton. Frances is a graduate of City University of Seattle, majoring in Business Management.

Pastor Frances is the mother of three adult children and grandmother of eight.
