Client Rights/Informed Consent

CLIENT RIGHTS: As a consumer of services of Summit Counseling Services, you have the right:

- 1) To be treated with respect and dignity in a culturally sensitive manner
- 2) To be informed of eligibility criteria for the service in which you participate
- 3) To receive assistance with any communication barriers which make it difficult for you to receive services
- 4) To be free from discrimination while receiving services
- 5) To have access to your file according to federal/state/agency regulations and standards
- 6) To terminate services at any time
- 7) To be free from exploitation for the benefit or advantage of a staff member
- 8) To report complaints/grievances using the agency guidelines provided to you

(Grievance forms are available on our website, or upon request at any Summit location reception desk)

- 9) To confidentiality as defined by policy and law. Summit Counseling Services maintains a strict policy on confidentiality of information (verbal, written, or electronic form). All information you share, or which we become aware of through our work with you will remain confidential. (According to state and federal statutes, Addiction records 42CFR Part 2) There are some circumstances in which this policy becomes void and we are required by law to release information:
 - If we become aware that you may be a danger to yourself or others
 - If we become aware of or suspect child abuse or neglect or vulnerable adult abuse and/or neglect
 - If we become aware of a medical emergency
 - If we are court ordered to testify or to submit our records to the court
 - If we become aware you have intent to commit a crime
 - According to State and National Ethic Policies if you are a third-party person sitting in on another client's session(s), you do not have the expectation of confidentiality. Confidentiality is afforded to the identified client only.
 - If a request is made by Homeland Security through the Patriot Act for information, your confidentiality is not protected.

SUMMIT'S EXPECTATIONS: As Summit Counseling Services provides services, it is expected:

- 1) That clients will be present and on time for appointments.
- 2) Rescheduling or cancellations must be 24 hours in advance of appointment or appointment will be automatically billed to client at full billing rate of session.
- 3) That clients will participate in service planning
- 4) That clients will not exhibit abusive threatening, or assaultive behavior
- 5) The clients will not be under the influence of chemicals during services
- 6) That clients will respect and protect the privacy of other client's information of which they may become aware

Summit Counseling Services reserves the right to deny services based on the above criteria.

INFORMED CONSENT: Informed consent is a process throughout the service relationship where discussion occurs between client and service providers. Clients have opportunities to ask questions in order to understand options available to them, consequences of different choices, and how the organization can help them achieve their choices. The following are components of informed consent:

- 1) Fees and payments
- 2) Staff qualifications, training, experience, credentials and Professional Statements, if applicable;
- 3) The types of services to be provided, expected length of services, results of any tests/assessments;
- 4) Risks, benefits and alternatives to service;
- 5) Range of services available through Summit Counseling Services;
- 6) Your active participation in your service plan with freedom to revise goals throughout service;
- 7) Possible outcomes of service;
- 8) Procedure for case closure

Summit Counseling Services is a training agency and participates with multiple colleges to assist in the training of their students. From time to time, students are required to share minimal information with their supervisors in order to benefit their educational opportunities and training.

Summit Counseling Services Operates as a Community Behavioral Health Clinic. We are not trained as experts. It is for this reason we will not write letters of recommendation, testify in child custody disputes, divorce cases, or other civil litigation.
