

Jeff Thrutchley

Consultant

Jeff Thrutchley has held a variety of leadership positions ranging from General Manager; Sales Manager; Director of Human Resources; Director of Benefits, Safety and Risk Management; and Director of Training throughout the US and Internationally with industry leading companies like John H Harland and ADT Security Services / Tyco.

For 12 years he was a sales and leadership consultant to the Security, Hotel, Banking, and Health and Fitness industries before joining a start-up operation at SpeedWire for AT&T's Digital Life. Jeff joined MasTec AT when it acquired SpeedWire as Director of Safety and Learning Development. He currently is consulting on Sales, Leadership, and Diversity, Inclusion, Equity, and Belonging challenges in businesses and non-profits.

Regardless of Jeff's specific job title, he has consistently been "in the business" of developing people to improve individual performance, teamwork, and company results.

Jeff graduated with a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Graceland University in south central Iowa with double majors in Economics and Business Administration. Jeff resides in the greater Atlanta area with his wife of 40+ years and one special needs daughter, near to his other daughter and her husband who have a girl (6) and boy (3). Jeff agrees that Grandparenting it GREAT! Jeff is an Eagle Scout, is active in church and as a volunteer with Camp Horizon – serving children of abuse and neglect in greater Atlanta.