Minister's Wives and Widows Auxiliary

December Activities

The Minister's Wives and Widows Auxiliary held it's annual Christmas Social on Saturday, December 21st at New Times Country Buffet in Tallahassee. The members along with their spouses enjoyed singing Christmas carols, exchanging gifts and fellowshiping with one another.

Every year, the Minister's Wives and Widows Auxiliary (MMWWA) selects a charity to give a Christmas donation. Brehon House was selected as the recipient of this year's donation. Moderator Elder Terry Price, MMWWA President Sister Sonja Robinson, MMWWA Secretary Sister Barbara Baker, Sister Patricia Spradley, and Sister Katrina Youman presented Brehon House with a monetary gift on Monday, December 23rd.

Brehon House provides prenatal and postnatal care as well as housing for homeless pregnant women and their children. Jackie Malone, Executive Director and Shirley O'Rear, Assistant Executive Director gave a tour of the facility and shared information their services.
