

LAW for FITNESS/WELLNESS DIRECTORS and MANAGERS/OWNERS

In-Person Workshop: Thursday, September 15, 2022: 1:00 - 5:00 pm

Sponsored By The Fitness Law Academy, LLC

Location: WellBound Fitness for Boomers & Seniors: 12121 Emmet Street, Omaha, NE

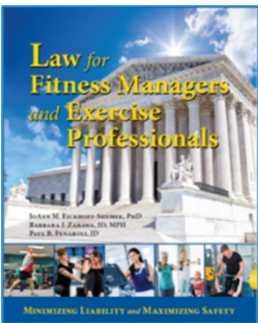

Early Bird Registration: August 15, 2022 - Save $20

Registration Deadline: August 26, 2022

Workshop Topics Include:

- ◆ Overview of negligence:
 - ◆ Factors courts use to determine the standard of care (duty) in negligence cases
 - ◆ Ordinary negligence versus gross negligence
 - ◆ Waiver defense - is your waiver legally enforceable (seven reasons why it might not be)
- ◆ Descriptions of negligence lawsuits and common claims made against fitness facilities/programs and their employees such as the failure to properly:
 - ◆ Design/deliver exercise programs based on the participant's health/fitness status
 - ◆ Conduct pre-activity health screening and fitness assessments
 - ◆ Hire, train, and supervise employees - and select/employ independent contractors
 - ◆ Inspect and maintain the exercise equipment and facility
 - ◆ Carryout an emergency action plan and comply with AED statutes
- ◆ Effective risk management strategies to minimize injuries and negligence lawsuits

Workshop Attendees Receive:

- ◆ Copy of the new, groundbreaking textbook: Law for Fitness Managers and Exercise Professionals (sells for $89 on Amazon)
Text Authors: JoAnn M. Eickhoff-Shemek, PhD, Barbara J. Zabawa, JD, and Paul R. Fenaroli, JD
- ◆ Electronic and hard copies of the PPT slides presented at the workshop
- ◆ Continuing Education Credits (CECs) - ACSM approved workshop for 4.0 CECs (4.0 CECs likely accepted by other certifying organizations)

Workshop Presenter: JoAnn M. Eickhoff-Shemek, PhD, FACSM

President and Founder, Fitness Law Academy, LLC (www.fitnesslawacademy.com)

Professor Emeritus and Former Program Coordinator, University of South Florida, Exercise Science

- ◆ Lead author of the above textbook and author/co-author of three other legal/risk management textbooks, several book chapters, and over 90 journal articles.
- ◆ 20 years experience teaching graduate legal/risk management courses in the Exercise Science programs at the University of Nebraska at Omaha and University of South Florida.
- ◆ Expert witness involving negligence cases. More information at: About Dr. JES \(fitnesslawacademy.com\)

Workshop Assistant: Michelle Streif, MA - Manager/Owner of WellBound Fitness

Workshop Fee: $179 (Early Bird: $159)

Enrollment is Limited - Register Early

To register, click the “Workshop Registration” button at: Educational Courses \(fitnesslawacademy.com\)

For more information about the textbook, go to: Textbook \(fitnesslawacademy.com\)

Questions: Contact Dr. Eickhoff-Shemek at: drjes2014@gmail.com