

David Emanuel Bell

“The Man With The Bourbon Voice”

David Emanuel Bell, who humbly received the dub from one of his listeners — “The Man With The Bourbon Voice” — is a singer, performer and romantic balladeer that is the perfect performer for your intimate setting.

Bio

David Emanuel Bell is a self-contained singer/performer that has been in Las Vegas for the past 28 months. David can contribute greatly as a performer to the ambience of any venue. His genre is music from the 30's to 60's and more. David creates the ideal musical atmosphere for a restaurant, lounge or special event setting. Since being in Las Vegas he has debuted as a guest performer at the Tuscany Casino's Hotel Piazza Lounge, Maxan Jazz Sushi Lounge, La Casa Cigar Lounge, and Styling Club. He has also performed multiple date as a sub-performer at Capo's Italian Restaurant. Finally, David gives back to the community regularly by entertaining monthly at Desert Springs Senior Living.

David's recent appearances in Las Vegas has provided him the opportunity to entertain young, old and of diverse cultural backgrounds — all of which have demonstrated an affinity for big band, swing, jazz, blues, rock & roll, R&B, and funk. David, with his music degree with a vocal performance emphasis, has the experience of working in different venues, and has learned a lot about adapting to suit the space and the audience. His performances have received consistently positive reviews, with one patron saying simply, "Man, you have a nice 'Bourbon Voice'", so he has humbly adopted the moniker — "The Man With The Bourbon Voice".

As a singer, performer and romantic balladeer, David's mission is to create a musical atmosphere of classic standards, romance and sultry blues with memorable songs for his listeners to enjoy. For David lyrics are everything in a song. David strives to have his listeners experience the original emotional intent of the music and lyricist. One of his fellow musician put it this way:

"As a professional trumpet player, working with artist such Quincy Jones, (Brother's Johnson), Horace Tapscott, Johnny Hammond, Barbara Morrison, and Marvin Gaye to name a few, I haven't heard a voice such as David Emanuel Bell. His voice is charismatic, pure and mellow — not following any particular voice".

Accolades

Ryan Ritchie, Staff Writer with Long Beach Press Telegram is quoted to say:

“Much of the music Bell sings comes from primarily the 1930s through the 1950s with a few modern tunes thrown in”.

“The singer was raised on classical music but fell in love with the emotion of old pop standards performed by male baritone singers”.

“Another motivating factor for Bell is his desire to shine a spotlight on early African-American jazz balladeers who were not allowed to be famous because of the time.”

“As a professional trumpet player, working with artist such Quincy Jones, (Brother’s Johnson), Horace Tapscott, Johnny Hammond, Barbara Morrison, and Marvin Gaye to name a few, I haven’t heard a voice such as David Emanuel Bell. His voice is charismatic, pure and mellow — not following any particular voice”.

“David's voice is in a category all its own. He is one to be heard. Where are you jazz labels? David swings a double sword. He studied voice in college as a classically trained singer, was an accomplished trombonist, and a rhythm guitar player”.

— Reginald Bullen, Professional Trumpet Player
