Greeting message

Dear member of RC14,

Our RC participation to the 19th World Congress in Toronto was plenty of good experiences (and of the warm satisfaction to meet and discuss among members). Toronto was such a nice place and the Metro Congress Center is really fantastic; but because it is not always easy for all our members to participate, as RC we propose several interesting midterm activities (for which you will of course as always be notified in time): the first one will be in Athens in May 2019, on Media Narratives of the Crisis : Contemporary Representations.

A new dynamic board was elected during our BM on July 18th , with members from Brazil, Canada, France, Greece, India, Romania, Spain and Ukraine. We proposed activities, gave ideas (as for instance a Newsletter on a more frequent issuing basis) and of course we remain attentive to your suggestions and ideas. Please communicate your projects, publications etc. to our Newsletter Editor in order to give them visibility in the frame of our RC activities; and please feel free to contact us with your propositions. We really wish to make the best possible for Research Committee 14.

Wishing you a very fruitful and creative New Academic Year 2018-2019

And looking forward to meet you in one of our forthcoming activities,

Christiana Constantopoulou

Professor of Sociology, Department of Sociology, Panteion University

President of RC14
