Guest Teachers & A Surprise Visit

We know being on zoom can be hard but we are working hard to keep you motivated! We'll be bringing in some special guest teachers.

Our first guest teacher is Daniel Palladino (For our Junior 3, Inter/Senior Classes)

Daniel began his dance training in Jazz, Tap, Hip-Hop, Ballet, and Lyrical starting at the age of 9. He carried on training, incorporating Contemporary, Modern, and Improvisational and choreographic techniques into the mix while attending Victoria School of The Arts. During his training while attending Victoria School of The Arts, Shelley's Dance Company, and The Kore Dance Studio, Daniel was a dancer in the Edmonton Fringe Festival, Edmonton Symphony Orchestra, multiple benefit concerts, and the TV show 'The Magicians.' Daniel has attended many summer studies throughout North America, some which include The Boston Conservatory, Point Park University, and Alberta Ballet. Daniel received his International Bachelorette diploma in dance and was given the opportunity to perform his own choreographed duet in an international show in Pittsburgh. As of fall 2018, Daniel attends The University of the Arts in Philadelphia on a full tuition scholarship to obtain a BFA in dance while he continues to be involved in many main stage performances and was given the opportunity to dance in the music video, Roots – Feel It (You Got It) directed by Alan Ferguson.
