Our Modern Slavery Awareness training is ideal for any person who may encounter a victim or offender of Modern Slavery during their work. The course is applicable to both front line staff and management as well as those who have a responsibility for influencing policy and procedures within their organisation.

Our course has been designed by expert investigators who have been involved in identifying victims, interviewing victims, investigating modern slavery nationally and internationally and interviewing those who perpetrate this level of criminality.

Course Learning Outcomes

- To understand the current situation in the UK and be aware of the changes to the law.
- To understand what Modern Slavery is and to recognise the signs and behaviours.
- To understand the obligations placed upon organisations and individuals.
- To identify what to do, who to tell and what to record.
- To identify the Support Services and what they can offer.
- To be provided with an overview of the responsibilities placed upon partner agencies and the processes involved.

The course is presented using a variety of learning styles such as:

Board blasts, power-points, group work and a variety of exercises.
