Today is SEA SUNDAY, when the Church prays for all those who live and work at sea. Today's Second Collection is for STELLA MARIS (the Apostleship of the Sea), the Catholic Church's official maritime welfare agency. It supports seafarers both practically and spiritually. For an appeal talk from Bishop Paul Mason, and a video showing some of what Stella Maris does, please visit www.stellamaris.org.uk/SeaSunday. This collection is vital to enable Stella Maris to continue its important work. To donate, please visit www.stellamaris.org.uk/donate or text 'SEA' to 70460 to donate £5. Stella Maris is dependent on voluntary donations, so please give generously. Baskets for your contributions are at the entrance and exit from the church. Thank you.

PLEASE PRAY for the repose of the souls of Vyvyan Raffield and Ann Tonge who have died recently. The Funeral Mass for Ann will be held at Our Lady of Lourdes on Friday 16th July at 11.00am. Pray also for all those recently deceased members of our parish and others known to us. May they rest in peace. Please remember their families in prayer at this time.

Visits to the Sick/Hospital/Housebound: If you know of anybody who is sick please contact the Parish Office

CASTING ASIDE 'OLD BAGGAGE'!

Jesus sent out the Twelve in pairs with clear instructions about how to carry out their 'Mission'. His Apostles had been chosen for that task at that particular time. Most people have responsibilities which they can't just drop. However, we can all take something from the message in today's Gospel. We may carry around certain personal 'baggage' that can hold us back, and make us less fruitful: perhaps an old grudge, a certain envy or resentment of someone else. We may find something difficult to forgive, or be held back by an unworthy attachment to something. All these can both frustrate our own development and prevent us from contributing all that we could. Part of the Gospel message of repentance is trying to put aside this negative baggage, to travel more lightly and be freer to serve. Christ has given us a means to get rid of this sort of baggage. Through the sacraments we can both leave behind what hinders us and move forward in the service of Christ. As the Apostles had great faith and courage to do what Christ told them, we too can ask for that faith and courage and be effective 'Evangelisers' in our time.

PLEASE PRAY for all our sick parishioners who are in nursing homes or housebound especially for Alison Stainthorpe, Sami Ghazal, Sophie Reilly, Ann Chapman, John Heal, Sandra Waugh, Eileen Cross, Eileen Noakes, Veronica Westbury, Colin Allen, Tara Vernon, Ava Hewitt, Cherie Pay, Anne Gisele Cesar, Ottaline & Len Henley Roger Davis, Maureen Garson, Jane Purdham, Una McLaughlin, Dorothy Benson, Teresa Ford, Peggy Cruickshank, Sr. Pauline and Arthur Silver.
