Hebrews 11:1

young-catholics.com

The second coming of Christ was anticipated after the resurrection. But instead there were persecutions and the destruction of the temple in Jerusalem. There was a shift of focus to the idea of not being attached to the things of this world. In doing that, the early Christians realized that they would be ready for the end times whenever they came.

The things of this world are not lasting. Building up wealth and power is useless. In the end, our love will be what remains. So as disciples of Jesus, we need to be focused on serving our Lord and each other.

When we become too attached to material goods and the esteem of others, we cannot see the signs of Christ among us. So we must be attentive to prayer and service instead. In this way, we will be prudent servants who are ready to greet the Lord when we see he is with us.

Our church home needs attention. The Altar of our beloved Lord and Savior is dusty and needs regular cleaning as does the rest of the church. To address this, we will be opening the church on Saturday mornings at 10 am and request that volunteers from our church family come in to do some cleaning.

We are blessed to have a large church so several volunteers will be needed. THANK YOU in advance for your help.
