

The Mystery of the Most Holy Trinity

The Mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of the Christian faith and life...the source of all the other mysteries of faith, the light that enlightens them" (CCC 234). It is one of the mysteries of faith "that are hidden in God, which can never be known unless they are revealed by God" (CCC 237, quoting Dei Filius 4). And once this mystery is revealed to us in God's divine goodness, even though it seems an impenetrable paradox — one God in three Persons — we recognize that the reality of the Triune God is exactly what we need...what we were made for.

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 8: "O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!"

Second Reading – Romans 5:1-5: "Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in hope of the glory of God."

Saint Vitus, whose name can also be Guy, was a child saint. He was entrusted by his pagan parents to the care of a Catholic nurse, Crescentia, and her husband, Modestus. They secretly baptized him and brought him up as a Catholic. When his father discovered that he had become a Catholic, he handed him over to the pagan governor of Sicily, where he lived, for punishment. Vitus, Crescentia and Modestus all escaped to southern Italy. All three were captured by pagan soldiers there, most cruelly tortured, and then put to death. All three are lovingly remembered by the Catholic Church as saints. Saint Vitus is one of the fourteen Holy Helpers. He is the protector against nervous diseases, epilepsy and paralysis. He is also the protector against the nervous affliction known as "Saint Vitus' Dance."
