

KATHLEEN CODY RANSLEM

Kathleen Ranslem is a lifelong self-taught artist who works in her studio in Naples Florida. She was raised in the Caribbean and spent her adult life living throughout the United States. Kathleen's love for the ocean brought her to Florida, where she made her home and retired. Naples' incredible scenery has afforded her the opportunity to pursue her career in the art field.

Her artistic accomplishments include 2 published coloring books, a line of artistic rubber stamps and having her art displayed at The International Museum of Art El Paso.

Kathleen's interests include working in many different mediums but she always comes back to acrylics and oils. Her love of nature's colors, water movements and reflections, are reflected in her paintings.
