

Levels of questions- 4 teaching foci from Carmel Crevola

Expressing ideas / thoughts and opinions	Listening and responding : self, others	Questioning/challenging and clarifying their own thoughts before others	Justifying an opinion
Level 1 recount (sensory- see hear touch taste smell)	Self listening to themselves	Model how to ask questions of yourself and others	expressing ideas and opinions
Level 2 emotional connection (moving into thinking, wondering)	Responding to their own thoughts and ideas expressed	Not a time for higher order thinking questions	give reasons for opinions and actions
Level 3 extension and reflection (comfortable to be challenged)	Others Listen to the prompts of the teacher	evaluate information, to judge the value of what they hear, do and read	draw inferences and make deductions
	Responding to prompts of teachers	to develop the criteria for judging their own thoughts and those of others	to use precise language to articulate thinking
	Listening to peers		make judgements and decisions informed by reason and evidence
	Responding to peers
