

The God I Serve

He created the beginning, whenever that was!

“The God I Serve” made the man, Adam from the dust of the earth, which He had created in the beginning, and He put the man, Adam in a place of comfort of the garden called, Eden.

“The God I Serve” made the woman, Eve out of a rib from the man, Adam. “The God I Serve” pronounced them, Adam and Eve, that were two, “one”; and declared them husband and wife!

“The God I Serve” expected the man, Adam and his wife, the woman, Eve to be obedient unto Him, only!

The angel Lucifer, whom, “The God I Serve,” made after the beginning; but before the man, Adam, became filled with self pride during a time before Adam; Lucifer left his original state of obedience; and attempted to take the place of “The God I Serve”.

“The God I Serve”, changed Lucifer’s name to, “the Devil and Satan”, and threw “the Devil, Satan” from Heaven’s living quarters where “The God I Serve” resides.

The man, Adam and his wife, “the woman Eve”, disobeyed, “The God I Serve” at the influence and persuasion of, “the Devil, Satan”.

Just as, “The God I serve” threw, “the Devil, Satan” from the place of comfort, and away from His presence of Heaven, “The God I Serve” put the man, Adam, and the woman, Eve, Adam’s wife, from their place of comfort of the garden of Eden.

“The God I Serve” chose to forgive the man, Adam and his family for their disobedience to Him, from the human race, which “The God I Serve” named, “sin”: the beginning of sin against “The God I Serve”!

But the righteous penalty had to be paid, so that everyone choosing to be forgiven of sin may freely confess their sin, and embrace the righteous penalty paid, the Son of “The God I Serve”; the Almighty God of the beginning of Creation: whom we know today with the Hebrew name, “Yeshua” and the English name, “Jesus”.

“The God I Serve” set in motion, among the families of the earth, the process, that would produce the righteous penalty to be paid in due season, for sin; which is the only Son of “The God I Serve”, the Lord Jesus Christ!

When iniquity first abound, in the families of the earth, and “The God I Serve” repented having made man: “The God I Serve” saw Noah! And Noah found grace/favor with “The God I serve”.

“The God I Serve”, did not command Noah to kill a single unrighteous soul on earth, but to build an arc of safety for himself and his family, and for every animal Noah was to save with him and his family. And every soul on earth deserving to die “The God I Serve” sent a flood and “The God I Serve” destroyed them all; He is long suffering, filled with love and grace, but “The God I Serve” does what is righteous, and needed!

Neither did “The God I Serve” command Abraham or Lot to kill a single soul in unrighteous Sodom and Gomorrah. But “The God I Serve” commanded Lot to gather his family and depart the city; then gave them time to leave, before raining fire and brimstone upon those cities!

No one should ever want to be on the wrong side of “The God I Serve” especially when He chooses to make things over.

Perhaps you are one of those that is unbelieving, or you are one of those that say, “I will be dead by then, so what does it matter”. You fool(s), whatever dirt (sin) you do not ask Jesus (the righteous penalty paid for sin) to take away, “The God I Serve” shall declare you condemned, when He wakes you up, that you must give an account of yourself, and face His judgment; or when He chooses to make things over! Study the Book of Revelation, especially Chapter 20. “The God I Serve” shall once again, “make things over”; Hallelujah, and Amen!
